BONDED WAREHOUSE ACCOUNT.

QUANTITIES of the PRINCIPAL ARTICLES IMPORTED (subject to Duty) IN WAREHOUSE on 31st December 1861; RECEIVED INTO, and DELIVERED FROM WAREHOUSE in the Year 1862; and REMAINING IN WAREHOUSE on 31st December 1862, at the PRINCIPAL BONDING PORTS in the UNITED KINGDOM.

IN THE YEAR

1862.

NOTE.—As inaccuracies are sometimes supposed to occur in this Account, because discrepancies appear, if the Stock remaining in Warehouse be compared with the difference between the Total Imports of an Article and the subsequent Exports and Entries for Home Consumption, the following explanations are given to show that this Account is not susceptible of verification in the manner described:

In the compilation of the Bonded Warehouse Account, every document is used which substantiates a receipt or delivery under any circumstances, and this Account therefore presents an accurate view of the Stock in Warehouse both at the commencement and termination of the period which it embraces.

The column headed "Received into the Warehouse during the Year" includes:—

The Articles which, having been warehoused at one Port, were removed and re-warehoused at another; and under the head of "Wine" it also includes the increase of quantity caused by the addition of Spirits for the purpose of fortifying the Wine in Warehouse.

The column headed "Delivered from the Warehouse during the Year" includes:—

The Articles which, having been warehoused at one Port, were removed and re-warehoused at another.

The Deliveries of the respective Articles for Home Consumption, on payment of Duty.

The Exports of the respective Articles, less the Quantities exported on Drawback or otherwise, subsequently to the payment of Duty.

The Quantities of certain Articles delivered free of Duty for removal to the Victualling Stores of Her Majesty's Dockyards, or for the use of the Officers of Her Majesty's Navy and Army; and the Quantities delivered free of Duty to be used as Ships' Stores on board Merchant and Passenger Vessels, as shown in the Supplemental Account, p. 436.

The Quantities of Tea, Tobacco, Pepper, and other Articles taken out of Warehouse to be destroyed in cases of damage.

Under the head of "Brandy" the Quantities used in fortifying Wine in Bond.

Under the head of "Rum" the Quantities Mixed in Bond, with other Spirits, either British or Foreign, to be eventually exported under the denomination of "Mixed Spirits."

As regards the Quantities of Articles Entered for Home Consumption, which are shown in the General Import Account, it is to be remembered that they comprise the Quantities charged with Duty, and passed into consumption immediately on their delivery from the Ship, as well as the Quantities taken out of Warehouse for Home Consumption.

RETURNS FOR THE YEAR 1862,

Compiled by Order of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department,

COMPRISING

1. Police and Constabulary.—STATEMENTS of the POLICE ESTABLISHMENTS and EXPENSES, and of the NUMBER of OFFENCES COMMITTED and OFFENDERS APPREHENDED: Also, STATEMENTS of the NUMBER of INQUESTS held by CORONERS.
2. Criminal Proceedings.—NUMBER of PERSONS COMMITTED for TRIAL at the ASSIZES and SESSIONS, with the RESULT of the PROCEEDINGS.
3. Prisons.—STATE of the PRISONS, NUMBER of PRISONERS, ESTABLISHMENTS, and EXPENSES, with RETURNS of REFORMATORY and INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS, and of CRIMINAL LUNATICS.

INTRODUCTORY AND EXPLANATORY REPORT.

THE Judicial Statistics for England have now reached the sixth year in their present complete form, as regards the first part. The arrangement of the Tables as at first settled with the approval of the Secretary of State, and the sufficiency and convenience of which for the purposes of all useful comparison or reference the experience of every day appears to confirm, is continued without alteration.

Less minute and elaborate than the Statistics of Foreign Countries, the Judicial Statistics for England may be allowed to possess this advantage, that while they prove practically useful they are made early available. It is found possible to ascertain very shortly after the commencement of the year some of the most important results with regard to the preceding year, and to complete the compilation of the Tables, both of the first and of the second parts, comprising with regard to the former the Police, the Criminal Proceedings, and the Prisons, and with regard to the latter, the proceedings of every Civil Court in the country, and to lay before Parliament the full information for each year, within six months after its close; while the Statistics of Foreign Countries, for the collection of which probably greater facilities exist, and in the compilation of which certainly a vastly greater number of persons is employed, appear generally, when published, to be two years in arrear.

In order to prevent misapprehensions which appear occasionally to occur in referring to the Statistics, in regard to the periods to which the different Returns apply, attention should be given to the dates, which indeed are stated throughout in the preliminary part as well as on every page in the Tables.

The Police Returns are made pursuant to Act of Parliament for the year ending at Michaelmas.

The Returns for the Prisons and the Reformatory and Industrial Schools, and the Returns of Criminal Lunatics are for the same period. The Coroners' Returns and the Criminal Proceedings are for the year proper to the 31st December.

POLICE AND CONSTABULARY.

The Returns for the year ending the 29th September 1862 show the following as the total number of the Police and Constabulary at that date:—

POLICE AND
CONSTABULARY.

Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners	-	-	4
Chief Constables of Counties	-	-	56
Head Constables of Boroughs	-	-	128
Superintendents	-	-	498
Inspectors	-	-	728
Serjeants	-	-	2,174
Constables	-	-	18,061
Additional Constables (appointed for special purposes)	-	-	335
Detective Officers	-	-	177
Total Police and Constabulary	-	-	22,161

In the total number there is an increase of 748 or 3·5 per cent. upon the total number for the preceding year, following an almost equal increase in 1861, as compared with 1860. The increase is distributed among all the ranks and classes, excepting of course the Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis and the Assistant Commissioners, the Commissioner of the City of London Police, and the fifty-six Chief Constables of Counties or Divisions, all of whom continue as before, and excepting also Superintendents, in which rank there has been a decrease of eleven :—
Increase in the Force.

POLICE AND
CONSTABULARY.

Composition of the Force.

In the following Table the strength of each description of force is shown.

Constables of Boroughs appointed under the Municipal Corporation Act of 1835	-	6,286
County Constables appointed under the Constabulary Acts of 1839 and 1840	-	7,969
Metropolitan Police Constables appointed under the Police Act of 1829	-	6,566
Her Majesty's Dockyard, &c. Police	-	712
Constables for the City of London appointed under the City Local Act of 1839	-	628
Total Police and Constabulary	-	22,161

The foregoing numbers show, as compared with the preceding year, an increase of 151 or 2·4 per cent. in the Constables of Boroughs; of 140 or 1·8 per cent. in the County Constables; of 408 or 6·6 per cent. in the Metropolitan Force; and of 49 or 7·3 per cent. in the Dockyard Force. No change has taken place in the numbers of the City of London Police.

The increase shown in the number of the Metropolitan Force for the year to which the Returns apply is no doubt attributable in a great degree to the International Exhibition, for the protection of the vast amount of property collected in which as well as for the maintenance of order and regularity within the building and on the approaches to it, a large number of men were employed. Since the closing of the Exhibition a gradual reduction has been made in the extra numbers of the force, at the same time that an addition to its permanent strength has been authorized sufficient to meet the increasing demands upon its services.

Annual increase.

To keep pace with the increasing population, in order that the Police throughout the country may continue to bear the same relative proportion, an annual increase in the total number of the Force must necessarily be required; and accordingly an increase, to a greater or less extent, has been shown in each succeeding year since the commencement of the Judicial Statistics.

Proportion to Population.

In 1859, the whole Police Force was in proportion to the whole population, calculated on the Census of 1851, 1 to 870. In 1860, the County Police was in proportion to the County population, apart from the Boroughs maintaining separate forces, 1 to 1,417. The Borough Police was to the Borough Population (not including the City of London or the Metropolitan Police District), 1 to 720. These proportions, comparing the total Police Force for 1862 with the population according to the Census of 1861, were, for the total Police Force of the country, 1 to 905 of the total population. For the County Police, 1 to 1,489 of the county population exclusive of the Metropolitan Police District, the City of London, and other places maintaining a separate police. For the Borough Police, 1 to 792 of the population of the boroughs maintaining separate forces; 1 to 472 of the population of the Metropolitan Police District.

Costs of the Police,
(Table, p. 1.)

The following were the total Police expenses for the year as shown in the Returns. The details for each County, City, and Borough, as well as for the Metropolitan Police, the Dockyards, and the City of London are given in the Tables:—

Increase of costs.

The total costs for the year show an increase of 17,771l. 0s. 2d., or upwards of 1 per cent., upon the total costs for the preceding year.

Under the head of salaries and pay there is an increase of 28,591*l.* 11*s.* 3*d.*, or more than 2 per cent.

POLICE AND
CONSTABULARY.

Under allowances and contingencies there is a decrease of 5,267*l.* 14*s.* 5*d.*, or upwards of 16 per cent. Under clothing and accoutrements, a decrease of 2,000*l.* 15*s.* 3*d.*, or upwards of 1 per cent. Under superannuations and gratuities, of 1,623*l.* 15*s.* 9*d.*, or upwards of 2 per cent. Under horses, harness, &c., there is an increase of 1,516*l.* 18*s.* 0*d.*, or less than 5 per cent. Under Station House charges there is a decrease of 6,335*l.* 8*s.* 7*d.*, or upwards of 5 per cent. Under other miscellaneous charges there is an increase of 2,890*l.* 4*s.* 11*d.*, or upwards of 14 per cent. on the total under this head.

The average per man for the total number of the Police in 1862, and in each of the three preceding years was as follows, calculating upon the—

	Total Costs.	Salaries and Pay.	Clothing and Accoutrements.
	£ s. d.	£ s. d.	£ s. d.
1862 - - - -	72 1 3	54 9 7	5 2 10

1859 - - - -	72 2 0	53 13 0	5 1 0

The following were the costs of each of the distinct Police Forces for the year ending the 29th September 1862, and the amounts contributed from the Public Revenue for each Force :—

	Total Charge.	Contributed from Public Revenue.
	£ s. d.	£ s. d.
Borough Police - - -	400,803 4 4	82,501 5 11
County Constabulary - - -	610,977 11 7	116,591 10 1
Metropolitan Police - - -	489,590 16 10	141,322 10 11
Her Majesty's Dockyards Police -	45,325 11 11	45,325 11 11
City of London Police - - -	50,296 11 2	—
Total - - -	£1,596,993 15 10	£385,740 18 10

A comparison with the costs for the preceding year shows an increase in 1862 in the total charge for the Borough Police amounting to 9,003*l.* 8*s.* 9*d.*, or upwards of 2 per cent., following a similar increase in 1861 as compared with 1860.

In the total cost of the County Constabulary there is a decrease of 3,615*l.* 13*s.* 9*d.* as compared with 1861.

The total cost of the Metropolitan Force, as shown above, exceeds by 8,288*l.* 15*s.* 1*d.* the total cost for the preceding year. From the total amount, however, must be deducted the sum of 17,751*l.* paid by the Royal Commissioners for Police services at the Exhibition. By this deduction the total charge for the ordinary services of the Force for the year is reduced to 471,839*l.* 16*s.* 10*d.*, showing a decrease of 9,462*l.* 14*s.* 11*d.*, or 2 per cent. as compared with the total charge for 1861.

The total charge for the Dockyards Police shows an increase of 3,461*l.* 5*s.* 3*d.* upon the amount for the preceding year.

For the City of London Police also an increase appears amounting to 633*l.* 14*s.* 10*d.*

In the total amount contributed from the Public Revenue there was, as compared with the preceding year, an increase of 3,570*l.* 5*s.* 3*d.*

In the amount contributed to the Borough Police there was an increase of 2,639*l.* 13*s.* 0*d.*

For the County Constabulary, a decrease appears in the amount, of 1,949*l.* 18*s.* 6*d.*

For the Metropolitan Force, exclusive of the Dockyard Police, the amount is less than for the preceding year, by 580*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.*

The charge for the Dockyard Police is paid wholly from the Public Revenue.

The City of London receives no contribution from the Public Revenue on account of Police.

In the Statistics for 1861 an estimate was given of the cost per man in each of the different Police Forces. This estimate was calculated upon the total number of officers of all ranks and the total costs as shown in the annual Returns of the respective Forces. With regard to the Metropolitan Police, however, it appears that in the total charge stated in the annual Return, which comprises the general expenditure of the Metropolitan Police Establishment for the year, several items are included which cannot properly be taken into account in forming a strict estimate of the cost per man, and which, with a view to a comparison with the cost per man in other Police Forces must be excluded, there being no similar charges in the statements of their accounts. The Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis and the Receiver have furnished two statements (given as an appendix after the Police Tables at p. 43), the one showing the items of general expenditure which they consider should be excluded in estimating the cost per man, and the other, the items which have a direct bearing on and reference to the charge proper for Police purposes for the year ending 30th September 1862.

Calculating accordingly, the cost per man is shown to have been 62*l.* 7*s.* 3*d.* for that year, and by making similar deductions from the amount given as the total charge for the Metropolitan Police for the year ending 30th September 1861, the average cost per man for that year would have been 65*l.* 9*s.* 3*d.*, in place of 78*l.* 3*s.* 2*d.*, as calculated upon the total charge for the establishment and given in the Statistics of last year.

The average cost per man for 1862, calculated upon the total costs as above stated was,—for the Borough Police, 63*l.* 15*s.* 3*d.*; for the County Constabulary, 76*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*; for the Metropolitan Police, 74*l.* 11*s.* 3*d.*; for the Dockyard Force, 63*l.* 13*s.* 2*d.*; for the City of London Police, 80*l.* 1*s.* 9*d.* For the preceding year these charges were respectively, for the Borough Police, 63*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*; for the County Constabulary, 78*l.* 10*s.* 0*d.*; for the Dockyard Force, 63*l.* 2*s.* 10*d.*; for the City of London Police, 79*l.* 1*s.* 7*d.*

The Criminal Classes, (Table,
p. 5.)

In the Returns for the year ending the 29th September 1862, the numbers of the criminal classes at large and known to the police are given under the same heads as for former years, and with the restriction which was adopted for the first time last year in regard to those classed as known thieves and depredators, namely, that persons who, although they may have been convicted and punished as offenders, yet are not suspected of continuing in dishonest practices or known to frequent evil associates or places of resort, but are established in honest pursuits or callings, are not included in the Returns.

Numbers of the Criminal Classes.

In the following table the total number of each class is shown for each of the years 1862 and 1861, with the average of the three preceding years.

A remarkably close agreement is observable between the years 1862 and 1861, in the numbers of each of the classes, known thieves and depredators, receivers of stolen goods, and suspected persons. Compared with the numbers for 1861, a decrease of 20 appears in 1862 in the number of known thieves, &c.; an increase of seven in the number of receivers of stolen goods; and of 36 in the number of suspected persons. In the total of the three classes taken together an increase of 33 is found in 1862. The average of the three preceding years exceeds very considerably the numbers for 1862 or 1861, with regard to each of the three classes. In the number of vagrants and tramps for 1862, owing probably to the want of employment in the distressed districts, there is an increase of 5,503, or upwards of 23 per cent. upon the number for 1861, and in a much higher proportion as compared with the average of the three preceding years. There is a considerable decrease in the number of prostitutes shown in the returns for 1862, both as compared with 1861, and with the average of the three preceding years, the decrease being greatest in those under 16 years of age.

The population according to the census of 1861, which had not been exactly ascertained last year for the different police districts, has been carefully stated in the tables for 1862, for each county, district, or borough, maintaining a separate police, a fixed basis being thus established for such calculations or comparisons as may be desired for succeeding years until another census is taken.

Continuing the statements which have been made in preceding years, showing the numbers of the criminal classes with their proportion to the population, in the Metropolis, the pleasure towns, the towns depending on agricultural districts, the commercial ports, and the seats of the principal manufactures, the following are the numbers taken from the Returns for 1862, with the proportions according to the census of 1861:—

POLICE AND
CONSTABULARY.Comparison 1861-
1862.

On a comparison with the year 1861, it appears that in the Metropolis there was a decrease in 1862 of 1,849, or 15·3 per cent. in the number of the criminal classes generally and of 1,329, or 22·9 per cent. in the number of prostitutes taken separately, the proportion to the population having fallen with regard to the criminal classes, from 1 in 231·3 in 1861, as calculated on the census of 1851; to 1 in 275·6 in 1862, as calculated on the census of 1861; and, with regard to the number of prostitutes taken separately, from 1 in 452·2 in 1861, to 1 in 574·5 in 1862. In the pleasure towns, on the other hand, there was an increase of 62, or 2·7 per cent. in the criminal classes, with a decrease of 16, or 1·8 per cent. in the number of prostitutes, the proportion to the population having risen with regard to the former class from 1 in 96·5 to 1 in 94·3, while, with regard to the latter, it has fallen from 1 in 246·8 to 1 in 252·3. In the towns depending on agricultural districts an increase appears of 288, or 17·2 per cent., and of 30, or 4·4 per cent. in the numbers of the two classes respectively; while the proportion to the population, which in 1861 was 1 in 108·5 and 1 in 268·4, has risen in 1862 to 1 in 92·6, and 1 in 258·6 respectively. The commercial ports show an increase of 419, or 4·6 per cent. in the number of the criminal classes with a decrease of 102, or 2·1 per cent. in the number of prostitutes, the proportion to population having risen from 1 in 120·4 and 1 in 216 respectively, in 1861, to 1 in 111·3 and 1 in 213·7 in 1862. In the seats of the cotton and linen manufactures a decrease is shown in 1862 of 185 or 3·3 per cent. in the number of the criminal classes, and of 17, or 1·0 per cent. in the number of prostitutes taken separately, the proportion to population having risen with respect to both classes, the former from 1 in 152·5 in 1861, to 1 in 150·9 in 1862, the latter from 1 in 541·7 to 1 in 524·5. In the seats of the woollen and worsted manufactures a decrease appears in the number of the criminal classes amounting to 950, or 38·8 per cent., and of 58, or 8·2 per cent. in the number of prostitutes separately; the proportion to population has with respect to both classes fallen, having been 1 in 129·1 and 1 in 564·0 in 1861, against 1 in 179·3 and 1 in 609·4 in 1862. The seats of the small and mixed textile fabrics show a decrease in the numbers of 112, or 6·3 per cent., and 27, or 4·4 per cent. and in the proportion to population from 1 in 157·8 and 1 in 462·1 to 1 in 168·2 and 1 in 483·5. In the seats of the hardware manufactures also a decrease appears both in the numbers and in their proportion to the population, in the numbers of 178 or 3·3 per cent., and 233, or 27·3 per cent. respectively, and in the proportion to population from 1 in 98·6 and 1 in 499·0 to 1 in 101·9 and 1 in 635·5. With regard to the criminal classes generally the proportion to the population is lowest, 1st., in the Metropolis; 2d., in the seats of the woollen and worsted manufactures; 3d., in the seats of the small and mixed textile fabrics; 4th., in the seats of the cotton and linen manufactures; 5th., in the commercial ports; 6th., in the seats of the hardware manufactures; 7th., in the pleasure towns; and 8th., it was highest in the towns depending on agricultural districts. The proportion of prostitutes to the population was lowest, 1st., in the seats of the hardware manufactures; 2d., in the seats of the worsted and woollen manufactures; 3d., in the Metropolis; 4th., in the seats of the cotton and linen manufactures; 5th., in the seats of the small and mixed textile fabrics; 6th., in the towns depending on agricultural districts; 7th., in the pleasure towns; and 8th., it was highest in the commercial ports.

The Rural Districts.

The Returns for 1862 for the Eastern and the South and South Western agricultural counties show, as compared with 1861, some increase in the numbers of the criminal classes taken together, and a somewhat higher proportion of these classes to the population. In the Midland group there is a slight decrease in the numbers of these classes, and their proportion to the population is lower. In each of the three groups there is a decrease in the number of prostitutes, and in their proportion to the population.

The following are the numbers of each class in each of the groups and their proportion to the rural population of each group, the Metropolis and the Boroughs being omitted from the calculation both as regards the criminal classes and the population, but the Isle of Ely being included with the county of Cambridge:—

POLICE AND

The proportion of the total of the criminal classes at large, as shown in the Police Returns for 1862, to the total population, as ascertained by the census of 1861, is 1 to 157·9; the proportion of the prostitutes taken separately is 1 to 669·8, these proportions having been in 1860, as calculated on the census of 1851, 1 in 136·8, and 1 in 549·6, respectively.

Proportion of the criminal classes at large to the population.

Estimating, as in former years, the criminal classes in England and Wales at the numbers shown in the Returns as being at large and known to the Police in the month of September, with the addition of the numbers in the different prisons at that time, viz. (for 1862):

Estimated numbers of the criminal classes.

Criminal classes at large (including 29,504 tramps and vagrants)	-	127,051
In Local Prisons (exclusive of debtors and military prisoners)	-	17,246
In the Convict Prisons	-	7,776
In Reformatories	-	3,295

a total is found of 155,368 for 1862, being an increase of 6,396, or 4·2 per cent. upon the number shown for the preceding year.

Objection has been made to the estimate thus formed in previous years, as being below the real numbers, and other methods of calculating the criminal population have been proposed. There appears, however, to be good reason for believing that the numbers calculated as above are at least the nearest approximation that can be attained in the matter. Under the Municipal Act, the Constabulary Acts, and the Metropolitan and City of London Police Acts, a uniform system of Police has been now established for several years, embracing every district, whether town or country, throughout the whole of England. Towards the chief duties of an effective Police, viz., the prevention and detection of crime, the first step must be a knowledge of the criminal classes and of their places of resort, and to this point the attention of the Police is specially called. Every person taken before the magistrates, whether subsequently convicted or discharged; all persons discharged from prison, to whatever neighbourhood they may afterwards resort; all idle and disorderly persons, and persons without visible means of obtaining their livelihood, may be supposed to be known to the Police, and with all upon whom suspicion rests are noted by them. From every Police district, whether town or country, returns are annually made, in accordance with the directions given by the Secretary of State pursuant to the Act of Parliament, of all known thieves at large, including discharged prisoners not known to be living honestly, of all receivers of stolen goods, and suspected persons, tramps, and vagrants; and from these Returns the Judicial Statistics on this point are compiled. From the numbers thus given on the positive knowledge of the Police, together with the numbers (exclusive of debtors and military prisoners) actually in Prison at the date of the Returns, the foregoing estimate is made up; and it may probably be considered more reliable than mere vague conjectures based upon no certain data.

In the number of houses of bad character the Police Returns for 1862 show a decrease of 612, or 2·6 per cent., as compared with the number in 1861, and this following a still larger decrease in each of the preceding years.

Indictable offences, (Table, p. 9.)

Proceeding next to examine the Tables relating to crime, it will be seen that, as for former years, in Table 3 are shown, in periods of three months, for the year ended 29th September 1862, the number of indictable offences committed, so far as known to the Police, the number of persons apprehended, and the disposal of the charges against them.

Crimes and apprehensions.

The following are the totals of the numbers shown in the Returns for each of the four periods of three months, commencing with the three last months of 1861—

	Crimes committed.			Persons apprehended.
October, November, and December	-	-	-	14,149	7,375

Total crimes committed	-	-	-	53,225	29,220

Increase in 1862.

As compared with the preceding year, there is an increase of 2,416, or 4·7 per cent., in the number of crimes committed, and of 2,146, or 7·9 per cent., in the number of persons apprehended. The apprehensions were in the proportion of 54·9 per cent. to the crimes committed; this proportion having been 53·5 per cent. in 1861, and still lower in each of the years preceding.

The winter quarters show, even more than usually, a larger proportion of crimes committed (53·4 per cent. in the two winter quarters for 1862, 46·6 per cent. for the two summer quarters, 52·6 per cent. and 47·4 per cent. respectively for 1861), and a smaller proportionate number of persons apprehended (51·9 per cent. in the two winter quarters, 58·2 per cent. in the two summer quarters for 1862, 52·1 per cent. and 54·9 per cent. respectively for 1861).

Nature and locality of the Crimes.
Murders.

In Table 4 the number and the nature of the crimes committed within the year are shown for each Police district. The number of murders reported is 124, being an increase of eighteen upon the number in 1861. Ten cases are reported in the Metropolitan Police district, being the same number as in the preceding year. In the City of London there was one case, none having occurred there in 1861; eighty-six of the cases are reported by the County Constabulary; twenty-seven by the Borough Police, exclusive of the cases in the Metropolitan Police district and the City of London; in Lancashire fifteen cases are reported, seven by the County Constabulary, one by the Liverpool, six by the Manchester, and one by the Rochdale Police; in 1861 the number was eleven, six in the County, one at Blackburn, two at Liverpool, one at Manchester, and one at Salford; in Hampshire nine cases are reported, inclusive of two at Southampton; in Staffordshire, nine; in Yorkshire, eight, one in the East Riding, two in the North Riding, and five in the West Riding, including one at Sheffield; in Gloucestershire six, including two at Bristol; in Somersetshire, six, including one at Bridgewater; in Sussex, six, including one at Brighton and one at Chichester; in Warwickshire, six, including one at Birmingham and one at Warwick; in Worcestershire, six, including one at Worcester; in Devonshire, five; in Chester, three, including one at Birkenhead and one at Chester; in Dorset, Essex, and Kent,

Of the attempts to murder, 54 cases were in the County Police districts, five in Boroughs, two in the Metropolitan district, and two in the City of London. Of the cases of shooting at, &c., 263 were in the Counties, 294 in Boroughs, 139 in the Metropolitan Police district, and two in the City of London; 106 cases of manslaughter in the Counties, 56 in Boroughs, 42 in the Metropolitan Police district, and two in the City of London. In the whole of Lancashire, including all the Boroughs, the total number of indictable offences reported was 15,658 in 1862, against 14,509 in the preceding year, showing an increase of 1,149, or 8 per cent. in 1862.

Upon being taken before the magistrates, the persons charged with indictable offences were disposed of as follows:—

POLICE AND
CONSTABULARY.

The proportion per cent. of the numbers disposed of under each head to the total number apprehended was as follows for each of the years 1862 and 1861 :

	1862.	1861.
Discharged - - - - -	31·8	32·4
Discharged on bail for further appearance if required	0·5	0·6
Bailed to appear for trial - - - - -	5·0	5·1
Committed for want of sureties - - - - -	0·2	0·2
Committed for trial - - - - -	62·5	61·7

showing for 1862 smaller proportionate numbers of those discharged and bailed, and consequently a higher proportion in those committed for trial.

Deducting the proportionate number of those discharged, there remains 68·2 per cent. as the proportion of the charges in which sufficient evidence was produced. This proportion was in 1861, 67·6 per cent., in 1860, 65·3 per cent., a progressive improvement being thus shown in the action of the Police.

Further to test the efficiency of the Police, their success in the detection of offenders may be shown under each of the headings of crime.

Offences against the person.

Under offences against the person, 2,536 cases were reported, for which 2,791 persons were apprehended; of these 641 were discharged by the magistrates, leaving 2,150 or 84·7 per cent. as the number of cases successfully pursued by the Police. This supposes one person only to have been sent for trial in each case. Under this head the proportion of the cases successfully pursued in preceding years was 81·1 per cent. in 1861, 77·4 per cent. in 1860, and 73·9 per cent. in 1859.

Against property with violence.

Under offences against property with violence, 5,746 cases were reported, for which 2,943 persons were apprehended; of these 709 were discharged by the magistrates, leaving 2,234 or 38·8 per cent. as the number of cases successfully pursued. Under this head the proportion of the cases successfully pursued was 38·3 per cent. in 1861, 36·0 per cent. in each of the years 1860 and 1859.

Malicious offences.

Under the head of malicious offences against property, 563 cases were reported, for which 464 persons were apprehended; of these 158 were discharged by the magistrates, leaving 306 or 54·3 per cent. as the number of cases successfully pursued. Under this head the proportion of cases successfully pursued was 49·4 per cent. in 1861, 38·1 per cent. in 1860.

Other offences.

Classing together offences against property without violence and the other offences recorded by the Police, including forgery and offences against the currency, offences against the game laws, perjury, riot, keeping disorderly houses, attempting to commit suicide (of which there were 581 cases), the total number was 44,380, for which 23,032 persons were apprehended; of these 7,795 were discharged by the magistrates, leaving 15,237 or 34·3 per cent. as the number of cases successfully pursued. Under these offences the proportion was 33·1 per cent. successfully pursued in 1861, 29·4 per cent. in 1860. Calculating in this manner, the total number of cases successfully pursued was to the total number of crimes recorded in the proportion of 37·4 per cent. in 1862, of 36·1 per cent. in 1861, of 32·1 per cent. in 1860, and of 32·5 per cent. in 1859.

Summary proceedings, (Table,
p. 21.)
Increase in 1862.

Tables 6, 7, and 8 relate to the numerous offences summarily disposed of by the magistrates.

In the number of persons summarily charged before the magistrates in the year ended the 29th September 1862 there is an increase of 14,291, or 3·6 per cent. upon the number for the preceding year.

The total number of persons charged summarily, and the result of the charges, were as follows :—

	Males.	Females.	TOTAL.
Proceeded against - - - - -	325,884	83,124	409,008
Convicted - - - - -	227,260	45,709	272,969
Discharged - - - - -	98,624	37,415	136,039

The proportion which the total number of convictions bears to the total number of persons proceeded against, viz. 69·7 per cent., is the same as in the preceding year. Precisely the same proportion continues also with regard to the sexes, 69·7 per cent. of the males, 54·9 per cent. of the females, the difference of 14·8 per cent. in favor of the females consequently being also the same as in the preceding year.

POLICE AND

The committals to Prison bear a higher proportion, 26·3 per cent., to the total number convicted, than in any of the preceding years. At the same time it may be remarked that 43·2 per cent. only of the sentences were for periods above one month, while 36 per cent. were only for 14 days or under.

Comparing the number of persons proceeded against before the justices in 1862 with the number in 1861, under the same classification of offences, an increase appears under the head of stealing and attempts to steal, of 3,693, or 8·5 per cent.

Stealing and attempts to steal.

The following are the numbers under this head, taken from the Tables for 1862,—

				4,277

These offences, as well as the three last named in the preceding class, of stealing and attempts to steal, have been subject to summary jurisdiction since 1827, while larceny by offenders under 16 years of age was not brought under this mode of procedure until 20 years later, and the two other descriptions of larceny named not until the year 1855.

In the class of assaults there is an increase in the total number proceeded against in 1862, amounting to 2,695, or 3·4 per cent. as compared with the preceding year.

Assaults.

The following are the numbers, under each of the three descriptions, for 1862 :—

In the number of aggravated assaults on women and children there was a decrease of 66, or 2·3 per cent. in 1862 ; in each of the other descriptions there was an increase in assaults on peace officers, an increase of 930, or 8·2 per cent.; in common assaults, of 1,831, or 2·9 per cent. The first of these three offences has been subject to summary jurisdiction since 1853, the latter since 1828.

In the number of offences against the Game Laws there was an increase of 1,618 or 19·0 per cent. The increase extended to each description of offence. Under trespassing in the day-time it amounted to 1,515, or 19·8 per cent.; under night poaching to 65, or 7 per cent.; under illegally selling or buying there were 52 cases against 31 in the preceding year; under the Poaching Act 1862, which, dating from the 7th August, had been less than two months in operation, 17 offences are recorded.

The total numbers under each head were as follows for 1862 :—

Trespassing in the day-time in, pursuit of game	-	-	-	9,144
Night poaching and destroying game	-	-	-	888
Illegally selling or buying game	-	-	-	52
Poaching Act (1862)	-	-	-	17
				10,101

The following being the totals of the chief remaining offences recorded in the table of summary convictions are placed in comparison for the years 1861 and 1862. Under drunkenness there was an increase of no less than 12,544 cases, or 15·2 per cent. Under the Vagrant Laws the increase is proportionately even more considerable, 6,318 cases, or 23·9 per cent. Under the other heads the variations, although large in some cases, are of less importance than those above noticed.

The numbers under each head were :—

The class and character of the whole of the persons apprehended by the police in 1862, both those proceeded against summarily and those on indictment, are shown in the following summary of Table 8 :—

TOTAL	22,216	7,004	325,884	83,124	348,100	90,128	438,228

Under every heading there is an increase in the total number proceeded against in 1862, as compared with the preceding year. In the total number of all classes proceeded against, on indictment and summarily taken together, the increase amounts to 16,337, or 3·8 per cent., following an increase in 1861 of 12,111, or 2·9 per cent. upon the number in 1860. Comparing the total of all classes proceeded against in 1862 with the average of the five preceding years, the increase in 1862 was 20,757, or almost five per cent. Of the total number of all classes proceeded against in 1862, 33·7 per cent. were of previous good character; of 34·7 per cent. the previous character was unknown, leaving 33·6 per cent. as the proportion of those of known bad character.

In 1862 the police proceeded against 71·8 per cent. of the number of known thieves reported to be at large, against 72·0 per cent. of the known prostitutes, against 69·9 per cent. of the number of tramps and vagrants. These proportionate numbers were respectively, in 1861, 71·3 per cent., 63·5 per cent., and 72·8 per cent.; in 1860, 54·2 per cent., 67·0 per cent., and 72·2 per cent.; in 1859, 55·7 per cent., 73·8 per cent., and 70·2 per cent.

The action of the police in the repression of the criminal classes is further shown by the following figures, in reference to the Metropolitan District and the different groups of towns and counties which have been already used for comparison.

The appeals to the Courts or Quarter Sessions from the decisions of justices on summary proceedings are shown in Table 10. Sixty-nine appeals were made, in 37 of which the convictions were confirmed; in 32 they were quashed. Thirty-one of the appeals were in bastardy cases, which have not been reported generally by the Clerks of the Peace in former years; omitting these, the remaining thirty-eight cases are fewer than the number in 1861, when forty-nine appeals were heard.

Appeals on Justices' Convictions,

The number of summary convictions during the year, including bastardy cases, was 272,969; in one case, therefore, in every 8,530, the conviction was reversed. Besides the foregoing there are the cases stated for the opinion of the Superior Courts at Westminster under the statute 20 & 21 Vict. c. 43., of which there were fifty-eight; forty of which were submitted to the Court of Queen's Bench; twelve to the Court of Common Pleas, of which seven were affirmed and five reversed; and six to the Court of Exchequer, of which three were affirmed and three reversed.

In the Returns of the inquests held by coroners it will be seen that columns have been added to distinguish in the cases of infants of seven years and under, those of legitimate and illegitimate birth. The coroners have also stated the number of the verdicts of murder which were in the cases of infants. In other respects the Returns are in the same form as for preceding years, and comprise Returns from the whole of the acting coroners with one exception.

Coroners' Returns,

The Inquests held within the year were as follows, under the different verdicts:

	Total - - -	14,198	6,393	20,591

The total number shows a decrease of 2·1 per cent. as compared with the number in 1861, and of 1·1 per cent. as compared with the average of the six years preceding 1862 to which the Returns extend. As compared with 1861 there is a decrease in respect both of males and females, in the proportion of 3·6 per cent. with regard to the former, of one per cent. only with regard to the latter.

Murder. The verdicts of murder show an increase of 11, or upwards of 5 per cent. upon the number in 1861, the increase being entirely with respect to the males and amounting to nearly one fourth (24·2 per cent.) With regard to females there was a decrease in the proportion of 11·5 per cent. Of the verdicts of murder in 1862, 124, or 56·1 per cent. of the whole were in the cases of infants of one year old or under.

Manslaughter. The verdicts of manslaughter show an increase of 7, or 3·5 per cent. as compared with the number in 1861.

Suicide. In the verdicts of suicide a decrease appears in 1862, amounting to upwards of 3 per cent. as compared with 1861; the decrease being with respect to the males 2·4 per cent., with respect to the females 4·9 per cent.

Excessive Drinking. In the cases of death from excessive drinking there was an increase of 12, or 5·6 per cent., the greatest proportionate increase being with respect to females.

gitimate); 7·6 per cent. were between the ages of 7 and 16; 46·9 per cent. were from 16 to 60; and 16·4 per cent. were 60 or above:—

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS.

In the number of persons committed or bailed for trial in 1862 there was an increase of 1,675, or 9·1 per cent. upon the number for the preceding year. This follows an increase of 2,327, or 12·7 per cent. in the number for 1861, above the number for 1860.

CRIMINAL PRO-
CEEDINGS, 1862.

It is, however, to be remembered that for each of the years 1858, 1859, and 1860, a decrease had appeared as compared with each preceding year, the whole decrease for the three years amounting to 4,270; and notwithstanding the increase which has taken place in 1861 and 1862, the number for the latter year is still below the number for 1857, by 268, or 1·3 per cent., at the same time that a comparison of the estimated population for each of those years shows an increase of 1,079,934, or 5·6 per cent. in 1862. The proportion of commitments to the estimated population was, in 1857, 1 to 950; in 1862, 1 to 1,016.

The number of persons committed or bailed for trial in each of the last 15 years, was as follows:—

1862	- 20,001	1857	- 20,269	1852	- 27,510
1861	- 18,326	1856	- 19,437	1851	- 27,960
1860	- 15,999	1855	- 25,972	1850	- 26,813
1859	- 16,674	1854	- 29,359	1849	- 27,816
1858	- 17,855	1853	- 27,057	1848	- 30,349

As compared with 1861, there was an increase to a greater or less extent in 1862, in 24 counties in England and 7 in Wales; in 15 counties in England and 5 in Wales there was a decrease; in the county of Suffolk the numbers were the same in each year; in Lancashire the increase was 430, or 14·5 per cent.; in Middlesex it was

CRIMINAL
PROCEEDINGS.

542, or 21·8 per cent.; in Yorkshire 226, or 15·4 per cent., these being the three largest counties in respect of population; in Essex there was an increase of 40, or 13 per cent.; in Kent of 23, or 2·9 per cent.; in Surrey there was a decrease of 28, or 3·6 per cent.; in Northamptonshire there was an increase of 93 cases, or 62·4 per cent.; in Durham of 61, or 24·4 per cent.; in Devonshire there was a decrease of 42, or 9·9 per cent.; in Gloucestershire of 46, or 8·7 per cent.; in Worcestershire of 33, or also, 8·7 per cent.; further, in Cumberland and Westmoreland, Derby, Dorset, Hertford, Lincoln, Rutland, Shropshire, Somerset, and Stafford a decrease appears.

In the Welch counties taken together there was an increase of 62, or 8·4 per cent.

State of each Class of the Commitments, (Table,
p. 45.)

In five of the six classes under which the offences are arranged in the Tables an increase will be found in 1862 as compared with 1861; under forgery and offences against the currency there was a decrease to the extent of 15 cases only, or under 2·0 per cent.

Under offences against the person the increase was 154, or 7·4 per cent. upon the number in 1861. In the commitments for murder there was an increase of 13, or in the proportion of 20·3 per cent. as compared with 1861, there having been an increase of 30·6 per cent. in the latter year as compared with 1860. In attempts to murder the increase amounted to 11, or 37·9 per cent. In cases of the concealment of the birth of infants there was an increase of eight, or 7·1 per cent. In cases of manslaughter the increase amounted to 63, or 30 per cent. In cases of shooting at, stabbing, &c., there was an increase of 56, or 34·7 per cent. In the unnatural offences there was a decrease of 10 cases, or 32·2 per cent. In assaults to commit these offences there was an increase of eight, or 13·5 per cent. In the commitments for rape, &c., and assaults with intent, &c. there was an increase of 19, or 6·9 per cent. In the total number for assaults there was an increase of 85, or 8·9 per cent. It is, however, in the class of assault and inflicting bodily harm, that the great increase has taken place, amounting to 174 cases, or 42·2 per cent. upon the number for the preceding year. In each of the classes of common assault and assaults upon peace officers, the cases were fewer in 1862 than in 1861. The total of the class of offences against the person is higher for 1862 than for any of the nine preceding years, and higher than the average of those years by 10·9 per cent.

In Lancashire the commitments for murder were eight in 1862 against three in 1861. In Middlesex, nine against five. The increase in the commitments for burglary and housebreaking taken together was 33·1 per cent. in Lancashire; 48·5 per cent. in Middlesex.

Offences against
violence.

In the class of offences against property with violence, the increase in 1862 as compared with 1861 is proportionately greater than in the case of offences against the person, amounting to 17·7 per cent. In the number of burglaries there was an increase of 50, or 8·9 per cent. In housebreaking, breaking within the curtilage of dwelling houses and stealing, and breaking into shops, warehouses, &c., and stealing, an increase of 187 cases, or 20·2 per cent. Under robbery and assaults to rob by persons armed, &c. there was an increase of 76 cases, or 20·8 per cent., and this following a much larger increase in all of these crimes in 1861 as compared with 1860. The total of this class is higher for 1862 than for any of the ten preceding years, and higher than the average of those years by 25·4 per cent.

Offences against
violence.

In the class of offences against property without violence, the increase in 1862 as compared with 1861 amounted to 1,014 cases, or 7·9 per cent. In cattle-stealing there is an increase of six cases. The cases of horse-stealing, as was shown last year, were fewer in 1861 than in any year recorded. Upon the number for 1861, the number for 1862 shows an increase of 47, or in the proportion of 15·6 per cent. For sheep-stealing also there was an increase of 43 cases, or in the proportion of 42·1 per cent. In the commitments for the different larcenies there was an increase of 1,710, or in the proportion of 18·6 per cent., following an increase of 9·5 per cent. in 1861 as compared with 1860. In embezzlement, receiving stolen goods, and frauds, &c., also there was a considerable increase.

In the class of malicious offences against property there was an increase of 119, or in the proportion of 51·7 per cent., following an increase of 18·5 per cent. in 1861.

Under the head of forgery and offences against the currency there was a decrease of 15 cases in 1862 as compared with 1861.

In the miscellaneous class there was an increase in the total number of offences, amounting to 8·6 per cent. Under the game laws there were eight commitments less than in 1861.

Persons committed or bailed for the foregoing, or other criminal offences named in the Table, are tried either at the County or Borough Courts of Quarter Sessions, at the Circuit Assize Courts, or at the Central Criminal Court. The Sessions are held quarterly in each county or division, at one or more places, with adjournments when required, in Municipal Boroughs having the grant of Quarter Sessions and a Recorder appointed by the Crown, and in about fifty other local jurisdictions of ancient right. The Circuit Assize Courts are held for each county (excepting Middlesex) and certain cities or towns twice in every year, with a winter circuit for such counties as may be determined upon from the state of the commitments. The jurisdiction of the Central Criminal Court extends over the whole of the county of Middlesex, and part of Essex, Kent, and Surrey, and the sittings of the court are held monthly.

The numbers for trial before these courts, respectively, and the proportion per cent. which the number before each court bore to the total for trial, for each of the years 1862 and 1861, were as follows:—

This proportion is for 1862, 23·3 per cent.; for 1861, 24·1 per cent.; for 1860, 24·4 per cent.; for 1859, 25·0 per cent. With regard to the number found not guilty on trial taken separately, the same remark applies. The proportions under this head are for 1862, 18·6 per cent.; for 1861, 18·7 per cent.; for 1860, 19·1 per cent.; for 1859, 19·6 per cent.

In the following table, the sentences for 1862 are given in greater detail than above, and in comparison with the sentences for each of the nine preceding years :—

Consequent upon the change made by the Statutes passed in 1861 for the consolidation of the Criminal Law, the capital sentences have fallen for 1862 to little more than half (53·7 per cent.) of the average for the ten preceding years. At the same time, on a comparison with the four preceding years, during which transportation has ceased as a sentence, a considerable increase is observable in the number of sentences to penal servitude for life, and for the long periods generally. The sentences to penal servitude in 1862 number 3,167; they are in the proportion of 20·6 per cent. to the total convictions for that year. The average number for the four preceding years is 2,242. This number is, to the average of the convictions for those years, in the proportion of 17·3 per cent.

Although murder is the only crime now subject to capital punishment (with the exception of treason, for which no trial has taken place for many years), the following table, which has usually been given, will still be useful, in order to show the crimes which, since 1861, have ceased to be capital, and the number of capital sentences for each, as well as of those for murder in recent years.

The numbers for each year since 1853 inclusive, are—

In one of the 29 capital cases in 1862, the crime was an attempt to murder; but having been committed in June 1861, previously to the consolidation Statutes coming into operation, the conviction, which did not take place until March 1862, was subject to the old law, and sentence of death was passed.

In sixteen of the cases the law was left to take its course. One of the convicts, however, on the morning of his intended execution, contrived to commit suicide; fifteen were executed. The particulars of these cases were as follows,— Berkshire.—John Gould, labourer aged 39. When drunk, he cut the throat of his little daughter. Insanity was pleaded.

Cornwall.—John Doidge, aged 28. Murder of an old man in his house, by striking him on the head with a bill-hook.

Cumberland.—William Charlton, aged 32, an engine driver. For the murder and robbery of an old woman, who lived in a cottage near the railway, and attended to the gates and night lamps.

Derbyshire.—Richard Thorley, aged 26, a labouring artisan. Through jealousy, he cut with a razor the throat of a girl to whom he was paying his addresses.

Durham.—John Cox, aged 25, a labouring Irishman. Convicted with his wife (who was respited, being with child,) of the murder of an old woman who lived next door to the murderers. The supposed motive was robbery.

Lancashire.—William Robert Taylor, a provision dealer, aged 37. For the murder of a house agent for a grudge he bore him, for not repairing the premises he occupied, to which cause he attributed the death of one of his children, from the bursting of a boiler.

Lancashire.—John Ward, aged 36, bricklayer. Convicted with another man, who was sentenced to penal servitude for life. They formed part of a gang of Union men, who, being detected in destroying non-union bricks, attacked two constables, one of whom they shot.

Lancashire.—Thomas Edwards, butcher, aged 32. For the murder of a prostitute with whom he had been living, by stabbing her with a knife, through drink and jealousy.

Middlesex.—Catherine Wilson, widow, aged 40. For poisoning her landlady in order to get possession of 9*l*. It was believed that she had previously poisoned four other persons, two of them being men with whom she was living.

Middlesex.—Robert Cooper, aged 32, a deserter from the army. His wife being still alive, he married another woman, who on making the discovery left him and went to live with her parents. He followed her about, and imagining that she had formed a connexion with another man, he shot her through the head with a pistol.

Southamptonshire.—George Jacob Gilbert, labourer, aged 30. He drowned or strangled in a ditch, on a Sunday morning, the daughter of a respectable farmer, after attempting to violate her. He had been before convicted of rape.

Southamptonshire.—Fernando Petrina, aged 26, a Spanish sailor on board the Brigantine Winthorpe. Murder of the captain and his wife, and the first mate. The motive not apparent.

Warwickshire.—George Gardner, aged 21. For shooting his fellow servant. He had attempted to take liberties with her, and she had complained to her master.

Worcestershire.—William Ockold, aged 69, a tailor. For the murder of his wife by striking her on the head with a broomstick, in anger at being disturbed by her in the night.

Anglesey.—Richard Rowlands, aged 45, a labourer. He had married a widow with several children, but did not live in the same house with her. Her father, an old man of 70, was found murdered, and circumstances threw suspicion on Rowlands. There was no apparent motive.

Lancashire.—Walker Moor, aged 36, a tailor. Murder of his wife by cutting her throat with a razor. She had left him, and had gone to live with her uncle, with whose son her husband suspected her of intriguing. This man committed suicide shortly before the hour fixed for his execution.

In the remaining cases, the capital sentences were commuted as follows:—Eleven, including the attempt to murder, to penal servitude for life, one to 12 months' imprisonment, and one sent to Bethlem Hospital. Commuted sentences.

CRIMINAL
PROCEEDINGS.
Criminal Appeals,

For the consideration of the Court of Criminal Appeal, thirty-two cases were submitted in the year 1862; three of these cases had stood over from the preceding year. In twenty of the cases the convictions were affirmed under different forms; in ten of the cases the convictions were reversed; one case was adjourned sine die; in one judgment was postponed. The number of cases reserved shows a considerable increase in 1862; in 1859 there were but fifteen cases for consideration; in 1860 there were nineteen; in 1861, twenty-two. The following is a summary of the cases brought before the court in 1862. In the Return given at p. 55 as furnished by the clerk of the court, fuller particulars will be found:—

Costs of Prosecutions, (Table, p. 55.)

The costs of the prosecutions at assizes, and at the Central Criminal Court and the County and Borough Quarter Sessions, and of the proceedings under the Criminal Justice Act and the Juvenile Offenders Act, which are defrayed from the public revenues, have been made up for the year ending the 31st December 1861, in continuation of the accounts given last year. In consequence of many of the accounts not being forwarded for long after the close of each year, and of the time required subsequently for their examination and settlement, the information furnished in this respect must necessarily continue a year in arrear of the other portions of the statistics.

The totals for 1861 are as follows; the details for each jurisdiction will be found in the table:—

	No. of Cases.	Costs.			Average each Case.

As compared with the preceding year, there was an increase in the total costs in 1861 amounting to 14,672*l.* 3*s.* 11*d.*; 12,287*l.* 18*s.* 3*d.* on indictments, and 2,384*l.* 5*s.* 8*d.* on summary proceedings. Compared with the average of the three years 1858-59-60, the excess in the total costs in 1861 was only 4,421*l.* 9*s.* 0*d.* In the statistics of last year, a mis-statement occurred in the number of cases at County Quarter Sessions. The number was 6,138, and not 5,138; and the average costs of each case were 7*l.* 11*s.* 9*d.* The total number of cases on indictment was 14,227, and the average costs for the total number of cases 7*l.* 17*s.* 11*d.*; a decrease therefore appears in the average costs of the total number of cases in 1861 as compared with 1860, amounting to 4*s.* 1*d.*

CRIMINAL
PROCEEDINGS.

In addition to the foregoing, are the expenses of the prosecutions by the Solicitor of the Treasury. The Mint cases prosecuted and concluded in the year 1862, were 396; and the total costs paid by the Treasury therein 3,540*l.* 9*s.* 6*d.* The number of criminal cases prosecuted on indictment by the solicitor of the Treasury, and brought to a conclusion in the year 1862 was 38, and the total costs, deducting any portion of the charge which was paid from any funds, other than those of the Department of the solicitor of the Treasury, were 1,413*l.* 5*s.* 11*d.* Besides these, the costs in a case comprised in the return for the preceding year, which had not been settled, amounting to 914*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.*, were paid in 1862 by the Treasury.

PRISONS.

PRISONS.

In the third division of the first part of the statistics, are comprised the returns for the prisons of the different counties, liberties, and boroughs, for the convict prisons, the reformatories and industrial schools, and the returns relating to criminal lunatics.

Among the local prisons, Walsingham, Beccles, and Winchelsea, which appeared in the tables for 1861, will no longer be found, the two former being closed, and the latter used only as a lock-up, for the temporary detention of prisoners previously to their being taken before the Magistrates. The number of prisons included in the returns for 1861, is thus reduced to 147 for 1862. The Queen's prison in Southwark also, which has been abolished pursuant to the Act of last Session, appears in the tables now, for the last time.

The returns for these prisons are for the year ended 29th September 1862, and (Table, p. 61.) show the following as the total number of commitments of every description for that period.

Commitments.	Males.	Females.	Total.	Proportion per Cent.
For trial and tried at assizes and sessions - - -	15,810	4,472	20,282	14·3
On summary conviction - - -	67,158	25,737	92,895	65·5
For want of sureties - - -	2,231	807	3,038	2·2
On remand and discharged - - -	6,912	2,348	9,260	6·5
For debt and on civil process - - -	12,561	694	13,255	9·4
Military and Naval offences - - -	3,012	—	3,012	2·1
Total - - -	107,684	34,058	141,742

Following a decrease in 1859 as compared with the preceding year, the total commitments had reached the lowest point in 1860. In 1861, an increase appeared of 12,956, or 11 per cent. upon the number in 1860, and in 1862 there is a further increase of 12,504, or 8·8 per cent., upon the number in 1861. The increase in 1862, as compared with the preceding year, extends to the three first headings in the foregoing table, the largest proportionate increase being under summary convictions. Under each of the three last headings there was a decrease in 1862. Under the first head the increase is 1,760, or 12·5 per cent: under summary convictions it is 14,024, or 17·7 per cent.

PRISONS.

The following comparative statement, shows the commitments under each of the above heads, for each of the last five years, with the total of those years, and the total of the preceding period of five years:—

Females	4,245	24,430	953	3,678	976	—	34,282
	18,904	83,128	3,611	12,519	16,620	4,675	139,457
Total of the 5 years, 1858 to 1862	90,718	399,814	16,504	56,431	70,293	19,820	655,580
Total of the 5 years, 1853 to 1857	123,160	374,013	14,884	64,349	55,733	17,897	650,036

Comparing the total commitments for the two periods of five years an increase appears in the period ending with 1862, amounting to 3,544, or 0·5 per cent. Deducting the debtors, and military, and naval offenders, it will be found that those committed on Criminal Charges, including those remanded and discharged, were fewer in the last period of five years by 12,939, or 2·2 per cent.; and further deducting the numbers remanded and discharged, and those committed for want of sureties, the remaining more strictly criminal commitments, those for trial and tried, and those on summary conviction, are still less, for the period ending with 1862, by 6,641, or 1·3 per cent. Considering the largely increased population of the latter period, this decrease in the criminal commitments seems by no means unsatisfactory. Comparing the same commitments for two periods of ten years, ending respectively with 1852, and 1862, the result is a decrease in the latter of 16,444, or 1·6 per cent. The annual averages of the similar commitments for those periods give, for the first, one commitment to 175 of the population, according to the census of 1851, with the estimated increase; for the latter period, one commitment to 200, of the estimated population for 1862.

In the number of recommitted prisoners, there was an increase of 6,095, or 15·7 per cent., in 1862 above the number in the preceding year, and this following an increase of 3,401, or 9·6 per cent., in 1861, as compared with 1860. The proportion of the recommitments to the total commitments has also risen from 27·5, 30·4, and 30·0 per cent. in the years 1859–60 and 61, respectively, to 31·7 per cent in 1862. The recommitted males were 27·4 per cent. of the total males committed; the recommitted females 44·8 per cent. of the total females committed. These proportions were in 1861, 25·5 per cent. with respect to the males; 40·1 per cent. with respect to the females.

Recommitments,
(Table, p. 61.)

The following Table distinguishes the number of those who had been recommitted after one previous commitment only, and of those more frequently recommitted. The proportion per cent. of the different totals to the total committals varies little between the years 1861 and 1862 :—

PRISONS.

Above ten times	1,085	2,968	4,053	2·9
Total	29,609	15,268	44,877	31·7

The proportion of the recommittals has hitherto been shown, as above, to the total commitments, and this mode of calculation is continued with a view to the comparison which it affords between different years with respect to the proportionate numbers; but in reality the recommitted prisoners can have no necessary relation to the debtors or the military prisoners; nor should those remanded and discharged be taken into account with reference to recommittals. Taking only the more strictly criminal commitments, those for trial and tried, and those on summary conviction, with those for want of sureties, the proportion borne to these by the number of recommittals will be found to be 38·6 per cent. in 1862. In 1861, it was 38·7 per cent. In 1860, it was 39·4 per cent. In 1859, 40·3 per cent.

The classified ages of the total commitments, exclusive of debtors and military prisoners, were as follows :—

Ages of those committed,
(Table p. 64.)

Ages.	Males.	Females.	Total.	Proportion per Cent.
Under 12 years	1,345	186	1,531	1·2
12 years and under 16	5,735	1,083	6,818	5·4
16 years and under 21	19,640	6,428	26,068	20·8

30 years and under 40	17,508	6,857	24,365	19·4
40 years and under 50	10,188	4,070	14,258	11·4
50 years and under 60	4,768	1,384	6,152	4·9
Above 60 years	2,507	731	3,238	2·6
Age not ascertained	163	59	222	0·2
Total	92,111	33,364	125,475	100·0

Notwithstanding the increase in the total of these commitments in 1862, as compared with 1861, amounting to 13,331, or 11·8 per cent. a decrease of 452, or 5·4 per cent. appears in the number of those under 16 years of age. The increase extends in a greater or less degree to all the other ages, the proportion per cent. of those of the different ages to the total of these commitments varying, however, considerably in the two years.

PRISONS.

The following are the numbers of the juvenile classes for each year since 1858 inclusive:—

	1862.	1861.	1860.	1859.	1858.
Under 12 years of age :
Males - - -	1,345	1,408	1,307	1,176	1,352

Total - - -	8,349	8,801	8,029	8,913	10,329

The proportion per cent. of these classes to the total commitments shows a continued decrease. In 1862, 6·6 per cent; in 1861, 7·8; in 1860, 8·0; in 1859, 8·3; in 1858, 8·7; in 1857, it was 10·0; in 1856, 12·3.

Birth-place of those committed,
(Table, p. 64.)

Comparing the years 1862 and 1861 with reference to the following Table, in the figures representing the proportion per cent. which the number of committals of those born in each country respectively bears to the total commitments, there is in 1862 a decrease of 0·2 with regard to England, an increase of 0·2 with regard to Wales, of 0·1 with regard to Scotland, and a decrease of 0·1 with regard to Ireland. The remaining proportions are the same for both years.

State of Instruction, (Table, p. 67.)

With regard to the state of instruction, the variation in the proportionate numbers is inconsiderable. A slight increase appears in the proportion of those who could neither read nor write. Among the males the proportion who could neither read nor write was 33·4 per cent. of the males. Among the females, 39·7 per cent. of the females; these proportions having been 32·8 and 38·4 per cent. respectively in 1861.

Of the males 4·6 per cent. could read and write well; of the females 1·6 per cent. These proportions were 4·8 and 1·8 per cent. respectively in 1861. Of superior instruction, the proportion of the males was less than 0·3 per cent.; of the females, upwards of 0·5 per cent., the proportions having been respectively 0·3 per cent. and 0·1 per cent. in 1861.

The following is a summary of the Table for 1862:—

Degree of Instruction.	Males.	Females.	Total.	Proportion per Cent.
Neither read nor write - - -	30,794	13,278	44,072	35·1
Read, or read and write imperfectly - - -	56,160	19,326	75,486	60·2
Read and write well - - -	4,260	563	4,823	3·9
Superior instruction - - -	270	26	296	0·2
Instruction not ascertained - - -	627	171	798	0·6
Total - - -	92,111	33,364	125,475	100·0

In the Table representing the occupations of the persons committed, the proportion to the total commitments of those returned as of no occupation shows a decrease of 2·0 per cent. as compared with the proportionate number in 1861. The variations which occur under other headings in the table, do not appear to require further remark.

Table 4 shows the numbers in the different prisons at the commencement of the year, (distinguishing the debtors), the numbers received during the year, the numbers removed, discharged or otherwise disposed of, and the numbers remaining in custody at the close of the year.

Disposal of the Prisoners, (Table,
p. 70.)

The convicts sentenced to penal servitude, who are detained in the cells rented by the Government in the County Gaol at Leicester, have hitherto been included with the other prisoners in the Return made by the Governor of that prison. For the past year, ended the 29th September 1862, these convicts, who numbered 112 at the close of the preceding year, will be found included in the returns for the Convict Prisons. In the return for the Leicester County Prison they are entirely omitted. It has to be further explained that, in consequence of the numbers of the debtors and of the criminal prisoners having been in error transposed in the return made by the Governor of the Chester City Prison for 1861, the total number of criminal prisoners remaining in custody at the close of that year was made to appear 32 less than the correct number, while the total number of debtors was increased by 32. Subject to the correction of this error, and allowing for the convicts above referred to, the total numbers in custody in the local prisons at the commencement of the year to which the present Statistics apply will be found to agree with the numbers shown as remaining in prison on the 29th September 1861. The numbers under detention in the local prisons and the removals during the year ended the 29th September 1862, were as follows :—

	Males.	Females.	TOTAL.

PRISONS.

The disposal of the prisoners during the year and the number remaining in custody at the end of the year, were as follows:—

Debtors	602	21	623
Total	14,300	3,943	18,243

In the total number remaining in prison at the end of the year there is an increase of 1,005, or 5·8 per cent. above the number remaining at the end of the previous year.

Capacity of the Prisons, (Table, p. 73.)

At the same time with an increase in the number of commitments, the returns for the past year show a decrease of 203 in the numbers which the prisons are constructed to contain. The prison accommodation, however, it will be seen was still considerably greater than the amount required for the highest number of prisoners confined at one time during the year, and much more than was necessary for the daily average of prisoners. The greatest number of prisoners confined at one time in 1863 exceeded the number in 1861 by 1,612, or 7·8 per cent.; the daily average was higher for 1862 than for 1861 by 1,520, or 9·2 per cent.

The following are the numbers for 1862:

	Males.	Females.	TOTAL.
Prisons constructed to contain	21,138	6,117	27,255
Greatest number of prisoners confined at one time	16,697	4,501	22,198
TOTAL—Males and Females.
Daily average of prisoners in the year	18,033

Although the aggregate capacity of the prisons is shown to have been more than sufficient, yet the greatest number in confinement at one time exceeded the number for which the prisons are constructed, at Chester City Gaol, Plymouth, Devonport, Maidstone County Prison; at Canterbury,—County and City Prisons,—Dover, Sandwich, Preston, Salford, Peterborough, Hexham, Lewes, Birmingham, Worcester, Scarborough, Dolgelly, Montgomeryshire, Haverforwest. At Cold Bath Fields, Portsmouth and Stafford, not only the greatest number in custody at one time, but the daily average was in excess of the numbers for which the prisons are constructed.

Sanitary state of the prisons, (Table, p. 73.)

The following summary shows the number of deaths and the cases of sickness during the year, with the average numbers for the two preceding periods of five years:—

Cases of Sickness and Death.	1861.			Average of 5 Years.
	Males.	Females.	Total.	1861–57.	1856–52.
Deaths	149	40	189	178	206
Cases of sickness:
Infirmary cases	3,003	1,158	4,141	4,248	4,531
Slight indisposition	46,310	12,203	58,513	44,897	36,698
Insanity	120	39	159	140	120
	Male and Female.
Greatest number of sick at one time	1,950			1,922	2,004

An increase of 13 appears in the number of deaths as compared with the number in 1861, nine among the males, and two among the females. The proportionate number to the number under detention during the year, viz., one to 841.1 is, however, lower for 1862 than for the preceding year, when it was one to 822.7; in 1860 it was one in 808.9. In the number of infirm cases there is an increase of 363. The proportionate number, one for every 38.3 of the prisoners, is the same as in 1861; in 1860 this proportion was one in 33.9. The case of slight indisposition shows an increase of 12,038, or 2.5 per cent. They were in the proportion of one for 2.7 of the prisoners in 1862; one for 3.1 in 1861; and one for 3.3 in 1860. In the cases of insanity there was an increase of 35 as compared with 1861. These cases were one in 999.8 of the prisoners in 1862; one in 1167.8 in 1861; in 1860 they were one in 896.9.

PRISONS.

In the total number of punishments inflicted for offences committed in prison in 1862, there was an increase of 3,689, or 9.7 per cent as compared with the number in the preceding year. Their proportion to the number of prisoners, viz. one to every 3.8 is the same as for each of the years 1861 and 1860. The cases of whipping were in the proportion of one to every 1,460.4 of the male prisoners; in 1861 they were one to 1,976.5 only. The cases of irons or handcuffs were one to 1,690.2 of the total number of prisoners; in 1861 they were one to 2,262.5 only. The greater frequency of the latter punishment among the females which has been remarked in former years, does not continue in 1862. The cases were one to 1,574.2 among the males; one to 2,221.3 among the females; in 1861 they were one to 2,470.6 among the males; one to 1,804.7 among the females. With regard to all of these prison punishments, however, no doubt, as in the case of the convict prisons, while frequent punishments are found necessary for the same individuals, the largest proportion of the prisoners receive no punishment whatever for prison offences. The following were the numbers of the punishments of each description in 1862.

Prison Punishments, (Table, p. 73.)

Whipping - - - - -	83	—	53

Other punishments - - - - -	2,387	86	2,473
Total - - - - -	36,308	5,269	41,577

In the number of prison offences there was a decrease of 30 in 1862, as compared with the number for the preceding year; following a decrease of 54 in 1861, as compared with 1860, and of 14 in 1860 as compared with 1859. The proportion of prison officers to the daily average number of prisoners, was, in 1862, one to 7.7; in 1861, one to 7.0; in 1860, one to 6.5.

The cost per prisoner for 1862, of which the above 24*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.* is the average for the whole of the County and Borough prisons, varies greatly in different prisons. At Barnstaple Borough Gaol and House of Correction, where lowest, it was 14*l.* 0*s.* 4*d.* In the Town Gaol and House of Correction at Kingston-upon-Hull it was 17*l.* 5*s.* 3*d.* At Liverpool Borough Gaol 17*l.* 13*s.* 3*d.* At Durham County Gaol and House of Correction it was 16*l.* 11*s.* 2*d.* At Salford County House of Correction 16*l.* 13*s.* 10*d.* At Tynemouth County Gaol and House of Correction 17*l.* 6*s.* 6*d.* At Stafford County Gaol and House of Correction 18*l.* 6*s.* 10*d.* At Winchester County Gaol and House of Correction 18*l.* 18*s.* 7*d.* The highest amount, 118*l.* 2*s.* 1*d.* appears at Alnwick County Gaol and House of Correction, where the daily average number of prisoners was under two. The returns furnished by the chairman of the directors of convict prisons, are for the year ended the 29th September 1862. In the purposes to which these prisons are respectively appropriated, no change has been made during the year. In Pentonville and Millbank convicts undergoing the first stage of discipline in solitary confinement are imprisoned, the former prison being exclusively for males, the latter for both males and females. At Chatham, Portland, and Portsmouth, male convicts are employed on Government works, under the second stage of discipline. At Dartmoor and Woking are the invalid males who are incapable of hard labour. At Parkhurst are boys under sentence of penal servitude or imprisonment, who are placed under reformatory discipline; Brixton and Fulham are used exclusively for females; at Wakefield and Leicester also male convicts are imprisoned in separate confinement, under contract with the Government. The convicts in these latter prisons will be found included for the first time in the returns furnished by the Chairman of the Directors of Convict Prisons for the above year. CONVICT PRISONS, (Table, pp. 88–89.)

Consequent upon the addition of the convicts at Wakefield and Leicester, the number undergoing sentence at the commencement of the year is increased by 447, the number in those two prisons, above the number shown in the statistics for 1861, as remaining at the close of that year. The number received from the County and Borough prisons during the year, in the ten convict prisons, was 3,295, exceeding by 213, the number received in those prisons in the preceding year. To these are to be added 803 received at Wakefield and Leicester, making together the total of 4,098 received during the year from County and Borough prisons. The number removed to the colonies shows an increase of 513, as compared with the preceding year. The increase, however, arises from the number sent to Gibraltar, while the number taken to Western Australia was less than in 1861 by 144. In the number discharged on termination of sentence, there was a decrease of 1,108, as compared with the year 1861, while the number discharged on tickets of leave, viz. 2,380, shows an increase of 735, the total number whose full terms of punishment expired within the year, being equal to 10 per cent. only of the number who were liberated on tickets of leave, before the completion of their sentences. The total number disposed of in 1862, exceeded the number in 1861 by 139. Of the number disposed of, 16 belonged to Wakefield and Leicester. The number remaining in prison at the end of the year exceeded in 1862 the number shown for the preceding year by 653, or in the proportion of 9·2 per cent.; omitting the number in Wakefield and Leicester, the excess in the 10 convict prisons in 1862, was 192 as compared with the preceding year, or in the proportion of 2·7 per cent.

The state of the different prisons during the year is shown in the following table:—

The number of deaths among the convicts was 70, 65 males, and only 5 females, or one male among every 154·5 of the males; one female in every 324·8 of the females; showing a remarkable decrease in the proportionate number of deaths among the females, as compared with the preceding year, when the number was in the proportion of one female in every 105·2 of the females. Among the males the deaths in 1861 were one in every 153·2. The infirm cases in 1862 were among the males, 5·388, or one for every 1·9 of the male convicts; among the females, 433, or one for every 3·7 of the females, the proportions having been in 1861, one for 1·5 of the male prisoners, one for every 3·3 of the female prisoners.

CONVICT PRISONS.
Deaths and
Cases of Sickness

In the cases of slight indisposition, an average of 10·3 appears for each male; of 5·4 for each female, these proportions having been in 1861 respectively, 13·1 to each male; 5·7 to each female. The deaths were one in 166·7 of the total number of prisoners. In 1861, they were one in 143·1; in 1860, one in 107·7; a continued decrease therefore appears in the proportionate number of deaths, and a considerable improvement in the health of the convicts generally in 1861.

The punishments for prison offences were considerably less numerous in 1862 than in the preceding year; and as the number of convicts was greatest in 1862, the decrease in the proportionate number of punishments in that year was the more remarkable. The proportionate number in 1862 was, upon male convicts, one punishment for every 1·8 of the males; upon females, one for every 1·3 of the female, the numbers having been in 1861, with regard to the males, one for every 1·4 of the male convicts; with regard to the females, one for every 1·1 of the female convicts. It must, however, be remembered that, as was explained last year, while repeated punishments are found necessary in some incorrigible cases, fully three-fourths of the whole number of convicts require no punishment at all.

Prison Punishments.

The following were the punishments in all the prisons, including Wakefield and Leicester; and it may be remarked that 532 of the cases of solitary or dark cells among the males occurred in the two last-named prisons, where, with the exception of two cases of corporal punishment at Leicester, no other punishment appears to have been inflicted:—

	Males.	Females.	Total.
Corporal punishments	26	—	26
Solitary or dark cells	753	544	1,297
Stoppage of diet	2,122	390	2,512
Other punishments	2,672	285	2,957
	5,573	1,219	6,792

In the total number of officers on the establishments of the ten convict prisons, a decrease of 37 appears for 1862 as compared with the preceding year. At Wakefield and Leicester, however, 64 officers are shown in the returns, which added to the number for the ten convict prisons gives an increase of 27 in the total establishment for 1862, as compared with the establishment for the ten convict prisons for 1861.

Establishments of the Prisons.

The proportionate numbers for each of the two years were, for 1862, for the whole of the prisons, one officer to 6·3 of the daily average number of convicts; for 1861, for the ten convict prisons, one officer to 6·2.

The following are the numbers for the whole of the prisons for 1862:—

In the gross expenditure for the ten convict prisons, which amounted to 249,620*l.* 8*s.* 7*d.*, there is a decrease of 4,111*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.* as compared with the preceding year. With the addition of the amounts at Wakefield and Leicester, making together 15,370*l.* 7*s.* 8*d.*, (these amounts having been hitherto included in the expenses of the county prisons), the total convict expenditure for the year was 264,990*l.* 16*s.* 3*d.* The gross average expense of each convict, viz., 34*l.* 10*s.* 6*d.* (Wakefield and Leicester being included in the calculation), exceeds by 9*d.* only the gross average for 1861.

Deducting from the total expenditure for the ten convict prisons the actual receipts, for rent of officers' quarters, charges for uniforms, sale of old stores, &c. amounting to 6,144*l.* 3*s.* 5*d.*, and the value of productive labour actually paid over to the exchequer, 8,331*l.* 13*s.* 11*d.*, making together 14,475*l.* 17*s.* 4*d.*, the expenses for those prisons are reduced to 235,144*l.* 11*s.* 3*d.* From the total expenses at Wakefield and Leicester also, is to be deducted 1,207*l.* 14*s.* 8*d.*, the value of productive labour making the net total expenses for the convicts at those prisons 14,162*l.* 13*s.* 0*d.*

By these deductions the annual charge for each convict is reduced to 33*l.* 2*s.* 1*d.* This it must be remembered is exclusive of the value of the convict labour devoted to public works, which is carefully estimated by the governors of prisons, and by measurement as far as possible, at 29*l.* 11*s.* 10*d.* a head at Portland; 28*l.* 15*s.* 10*d.* at Portsmouth; and 31*l.* 15*s.* 5*d.* at Chatham, further reducing the net cost per prisoner to 8*l.* 4*s.* 3*d.*, 6*l.* 12*s.* 8*d.*, and 8*l.* 17*s.* 8*d.* in those prisons respectively.

REFORMATORY
SCHOOLS, (Table,
pp. 90-91.)

During the year ended the 29th September 1862, two reformatory schools were certified by the Secretary of State for the reception of juvenile offenders pursuant to the statutes of the 17th & 18th Vict. c. 86., and 19th & 20th Vict. c. 109. During the same period, the certificate of one school was withdrawn, an addition of one being thus made to the number for the preceding year. To schools thus certified, it will be remembered, offenders under 16 years of age, whether convicted upon indictment or summarily by justices, may, after a short term of previous imprisonment, be sent for not less than two years or more than five years, for teaching, discipline, and industrial training.

In the numbers sent to the reformatories in 1862, it will be seen there was a considerable decrease, both as regards the males and the females, amounting, for the former to 154, or 18·1 per cent., and for the latter to 19, or 8·7 per cent.

The total number committed in 1862 was less also than the total number in 1860.

The number of certified schools, and the number of committals for each year from the passing of the first above-mentioned Act to 1862 inclusive were as follows:—

The state of the Reformatories in 1862 was as follows:—

	Males.	Females.	TOTAL.	State of the Reformatories.

Total - -	879	186	1,065
Number remaining under detention at the end of the year - -	2,610	685	3,295

In the foregoing table, a discrepancy will be observed between the number at the commencement of the year, and the number shown in the table for 1861 as remaining under detention at the end of that year. This arises from 34 females having been removed from Wakefield on the 27th September 1861, the day but one before the close of the year for which the returns are made, into the then newly certified Girls' Reformatory at Doncaster, of whom no return was made in 1861, but who are included in the number shown as under detention at the commencement of the succeeding year. The total number remaining under detention on the 29th September 1861 having consequently been 3,233, and not 3,199 as stated last year; the increase in the number remaining in custody on the 29th September 1862 above the number for the preceding year, was 62 only.

In the numbers discharged in 1862, both on order from the Secretary of State and on completion of their term of detention, there was an increase as compared with 1861, in the former of 127, or 26·7 per cent., in the latter of 31, or 9·4 per cent. In the number of deaths there was an increase of three.

The total number discharged within the year approaches nearly to the number committed; the proportion has risen annually. For the last year it is 90·2 per cent.; for 1861 it was 64·2 per cent.; for 1860, 51·9 per cent.; for 1859, 47·8 per cent.

REFORMATORY
SCHOOLS.

The classified numbers of the previous commitments to prison of the offenders committed to the reformatories in 1862 were—

Previous commitments.

	Males.	Females.	TOTAL
Once	263	46	309
Twice	116	16	132
Thrice	43	—	43

Above ten times	1	—	1
Total previously committed to any prison	451	62	513
Not previously committed	396	155	551
Total	847	217	1,064

From the foregoing table it will be seen that nearly half (48·2 per cent.) of the total number committed to reformatories during the year, had been in prison previously to the conviction on which they were sent to the reformatories, leaving 51·8 per cent. who were sent to reformatories on their first conviction. These proportions were in 1861 40·8 per cent. who had been before in prison, 59·2 per cent. committed to reformatories on their first conviction; in 1860, 49·1 and 50·9 per cent. respectively.

Ages and Instruction.

The ages of those committed in 1862, and their state of instruction when received, were—

	Aged 10 and under.	11.	12.	13.	14.	15.	16.
Neither read nor write:

Of the males one half could neither read nor write; 42 per cent. could read, or read and write imperfectly; 8 per cent. could read and write well. Of the females the proportionate numbers were 55, 38, and 7 per cent.

Costs for 1862.

The total amount payable by Her Majesty's Treasury on account of this class of offenders for the year, at rates varying from 4s. to 7s. per head per week, was 54,845*l.* 0s. 1*d.* The sum of 2,404*l.* 3s. 5*d.* was recovered from the parents. The charge upon the Treasury shows an increase of 2,459*l.* 7s. 7*d.* upon the amount for 1861, following an increase of 6,856*l.* 1s. 8*d.* in 1861 upon the amount for 1860, and of 6,686*l.* 9s. 7*d.* in the latter year upon the amount for 1859.

Middlesex Industrial School,
(Table, p. 92.)

The Middlesex Industrial School at Feltham, provided under the Local Act 17th & 18th Vict. c. 169, is used for male offenders only, no provision having been made within the county under this Act for females. In the terms of the Act any judge, magistrate of the police courts of the metropolis, or any two or more justices in petty sessions may sentence any juvenile offender convicted of any offence in the County of Middlesex and punishable on summary or other conviction, to be detained in the school for not less than one year, or more than three years, the previous commitment to prison which is required in the case of offenders sent to the reformatory schools not being required with regard to the Middlesex School. The limitation with respect to age is above seven and under 14 years.

On the 30th September 1861, 422 juvenile offenders were under detention in this school. During the year ended the 29th September 1862, 208 were committed, making a total of 630 who were under confinement within the year. Of this number, 59 were discharged on the completion of their respective terms of detention; four absconded and were not retaken; two were condemned to three years penal servitude each upon conviction for stealing; and two died; 67 were thus removed from the school, leaving 563 under detention on the 29th September 1862. This number shows an increase of 141 or 33·4 per cent. upon the number remaining on the 29th September 1860; and this following an increase of 161, or 61·7 per cent. for that year as compared with the preceding year; 21, or 10·0 per cent. of the number committed during the year were convicted on indictment; 187, or 90·0 per cent. were committed on summary conviction by the magistrates; 199 were committed under sentence of three years' confinement; eight for two years; and one only for one year. 36, or 17·2 per cent. of those committed were 10 years of age or less; 34, or 16·4 per cent. were 11 years of age or above 10; 34, 12 years or above 11; 70, or 33·6 per cent. were 13 or above 12; and 34, 14 years or above 13. Of 19, or 9·1 per cent. of the boys committed, both parents were dead; of 79, or 38·0 per cent., one parent was dead; 10 of the boys had been deserted by one of their parents; two, by both; of three of the boys, one of the parents was in prison; seven were otherwise uncontrolled by one of their parents; three by both; 81, or 38·9 per cent. were under the control of one parent; 94, or 45·1 per cent., of both; 34, or 16·4 per cent. of the boys had been once previously committed; 10 had been twice previously; five, three times; and three, four times; 156, or 75·0 per cent. of the whole number were sent to the school on their first conviction; 166, or 79·8 per cent. of the whole number were committed for larcenies; nine for attempts to steal; five for unlawful possession of goods; two for fraudulent offences; three for house breaking or shop breaking; one for attempting to break into a house; four for malicious offences; one for forgery; three for uttering counterfeit coin; and 14 for vagrancy.

MIDDLESEX IN-DUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

The number of industrial schools certified under the Act of 1861 and the former Acts, up to the 29th September 1862, was 29, being six more than the number at the same period of the preceding year. In 26 of these schools, the names of which are given in the table, children were under detention during the year, leaving three only of the schools certified under the Act to which no commitments have been made; up to the 29th September in the preceding year, 14 only of the 23 then certified schools had received children on commitment. The number under detention also has considerably increased, the commitments during the past year, under the provisions of the Act of 1861, having amounted to 369,—247 males and 122 females. Adding to these 178,—116 males and 62 females,—the number remaining at the close of the preceding year, a total appears of 547,—363 males and 184 females, as the number who were under detention during the year ended the 29th September 1862. Of these 60,—36 males and 24 females were discharged, and 7,—2 males and 5 females,—died during the year, leaving 480,—325 males and 155 females,—remaining under detention on the 29th September 1862, an increase of 302,—209 males and 93 females,—upon the number at the close of the preceding year.

Industrial Schools,

The cost, as shown by the Returns, amounted to 4,948*l.* 15*s.* 7*d.*; 715*l.* 4*s.* 0*d.* only was recovered from the parents.

The returns from the different lunatic asylums, hospitals, and licensed houses state the same particulars with regard to the Criminal Lunatics under detention for the year ended the 29th September 1862 as the Returns for the preceding years.

CRIMINAL
LUNATICS, (Table,
pp. 93-4-5.)

The numbers for the year and their disposal were as follows:—

	Males.	Females.	TOTAL.
Under detention at the commencement of the year -	616	183	799
Received from other asylums - - - - -	9	1	10

Removed to other asylums
Total	113	41	154
Remaining under detention	673	190	863

In the number committed during the year, there is an increase of 73, or 5·4 per cent. upon the number committed during the preceding year.

The number of deaths was less by six than the number in 1861. In the total number discharged or removed during the year, there is a decrease of 17, as compared with 1861.

In the number remaining under detention at the close of the year, there is an increase of 64, or 8 per cent. upon the number remaining at the close of the preceding year. This number shows a continued annual increase. Upon the number remaining at the close of the year 1856, the increase at the 29th September 1862, amounts to 266, or 44·5 per cent.

Offences for which detained.

One hundred and thirty-nine, or 13·7 per cent. of the whole number in custody in 1862, were for murder; 100, or 9·8 per cent., for attempts to murder; 247, or 24·3 per cent., for larcenies and petty thefts.

The various offences are fully shown in the table.

Judgments under which detained.

The original judgments or orders under which the lunatics in custody in 1862 were detained, with the proportion per cent. which the numbers under each bear to the whole, were as follows :—

Judgments or Orders.	Number.	Proportion per cent. to whole Number.
Found insane	144	14·2
Acquitted insane	156	15·3
Insane, committed by Justices	84	8·3
Dangerous lunatics, committed by Justices	3	0·3
Convicts becoming insane after trial, and removed by order of the Secretary of State	630	61·9
	1,017	100·0

The periods for which those for each offence have been under detention, and the total number of persons under each period of detention, are shown in the table.

The number under each period, and the proportion per cent. borne by each number to the whole, are as follows :—

	Number of Persons.	Proportion per cent. to whole number.
One year and under	222	21·9
Two years and above one	142	14·0
Three years and above two	157	15·4

Ten years and above five	178	17·5
Fifteen years and above ten	96	9·3
Twenty years and above fifteen	49	4·8
Above twenty years	33	3·3
	1,017	100·0

Costs, (Table, p. 94.)

The total charges for the above Criminal Lunatics for the year, amounted to 28,260*l.* 10*s.* 11*d.*, being an increase of 1,559*l.* 4*s.* 0*d.* upon the total amount for the preceding year.

The amounts chargeable to each of the different funds from which the costs are defrayed, and the proportion per cent. which each amount bears to the total, were as follows:—

CRIMINAL
LUNATICS.

County Rates - - - -	4,468	2	7	15·8
Borough Rates or Funds - - - -	1,245	18	10	4·4
Parish Rates - - - -	5,905	1	6	20·7
Public Revenues - - - -	15,104	0	2	53·6
Private Funds - - - -	1,537	7	10	5·5
Total - - - -	28,260	10	11	100·0

The increase in 1862 extends to each of the funds, excepting the last, the amount chargeable on which was less by 137*l.* 14*s.* 7*d.* than in 1861.

In the cost per head, little change will be found. For the 37 County Asylums (Cumberland being added to the list since the preceding year), the average is 23*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*, instead of 23*l.* 17*s.* 9*d.* in 1861. In the Medway Union, the one case remains at the cost of 13*l.* per annum, while in certain of the licensed houses, there are still the same cases as before, of high payments chargeable entirely on private funds.

It will have been seen that throughout the returns for 1862 an increase of crime appears. In no year since 1857 has the number of convictions been so high. Previously to that date, no available record of summary convictions exists, while the great diminution in the numbers for trial at Assizes and Sessions, which immediately followed the operation of the Criminal Justice Act, renders useless any comparison between the years from 1856 inclusive, and preceding years. The commitments to prison, however, as shown in the prison returns are available, and a reference to these for the twenty years preceding 1862, shows that, with continued fluctuation between 89,932, the lowest number, in 1846, and 119,715, the highest, in 1849, in no year except the last named and 1848, did the commitments for trial and on summary conviction together, exceed, or nearly equal, the number in 1862. In the latter year these commitments were 113,177; the annual mean for each period of ten years, ending respectively with 1851 and 1861, was, for the former, 103,150, for the latter 100,801.

In concluding this portion of the report, I would only add, with reference to the numerous returns upon which the statistics are founded, that while with few exceptions they are furnished with due regularity and attention, cases occur where absence or illness, and perhaps neglect or forgetfulness, and in one or two instances, apparently perverseness of disposition, occasion unnecessary and vexatious delay, rendering, as the experience of three years may justify me in saying, the task of collecting and compiling the complete information required, one of much difficulty and anxiety to those engaged upon it.

JUDICIAL STATISTICS.

PART II.

ENGLAND AND WALES.

COMMON LAW—EQUITY—CIVIL AND CANON LAW.

RETURNS FOR THE YEAR 1862,

Compiled by Order of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department,

COMPRISING

The Superior Courts of Common Law, the County Courts, and other Courts for the Recovery of Small Debts.

The Bankruptcy Courts.

The Courts of Equity, the Court of Probate, the Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, the Ecclesiastical Courts, the Admiralty Court.

The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, and the Judicial Proceedings of the House of Lords.

INTRODUCTORY AND EXPLANATORY REMARKS.

The second part of the Judicial Statistics for 1862 contains the usual information with regard to all the Courts of Civil Jurisdiction for which returns have hitherto been made, excepting of course the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and the County Courts in matters of Insolvency, and excepting also the important Courts of Bankruptcy, and the proceedings in Bankruptcy in the County Courts.

Pursuant to the Bankruptcy Act of 1861 the jurisdiction of the Insolvent Debtors Court and the jurisdiction of the County Courts in Insolvency ceased from the 11th October of that year, jurisdiction in Bankruptcy being given by the Act to the County Courts (except those of the Metropolitan Circuits), in addition to the District Courts of Bankruptcy.

By the 67th section of the Bankruptcy Act returns are required to be made annually to the Chief Registrar by the officers of the Court in London, and by those of the District Courts, and by the Registrars of the County Courts acting in Bankruptcy: But, owing, no doubt, to the pressure of business which followed the operation of the new Act, and the difficulty of at once settling forms adapted to the new modes of procedure, these returns appear not to have been yet completed for the first year; and no information as to the proceedings in Bankruptcy since the commencement of the Act being yet available in consequence, it has not been thought advisable to delay the appearance of the other portions of the Statistics on this account, and they will be found defective in this respect.

The proceedings in each of the three superior courts of Common Law are shown in detail in the returns furnished by the different officers of the courts.

In the first table furnished by the Queen's coroner and attorney and master of the Crown office, and the master, certain of the proceedings under the peculiar jurisdiction of the Court of Queen's Bench on the Crown side are shown under the same headings for 1862 as for the preceding years.

The following are the total proceedings under this jurisdiction, as given in the table for the year 1862, with the totals for 1861, and the average of the totals for 1861-60-59.

With regard to the cases and persons tried on the Crown side of the Court of Queen's Bench, of which no record is kept in the Crown office, the same explanation which was given in 1861 by Her Majesty's coroner and attorney and the master, has been repeated for 1862. The offences tried comprise conspiracies, perjuries, assaults, nuisances, and other misdemeanors, and occasionally though rarely felonies; but the trials take place at Nisi Prius in London and Middlesex, and at the assizes for the counties generally. No record, it is stated, is kept in the Crown office of sentences of imprisonment, whether with or without fines, except in certain cases in which judgment is entered up in the Queen's Bench, and in certain cases of fines and other punishments where the sentences are passed by the Court in Banc, which seldom occurs now, as sentences are, by virtue of statute 11th Geo. 4. and 1st Will. 4. c. 70., always invariably passed by the judge at Nisi Prius, and not afterwards entered up of record in the Queen's Bench. In 18 cases of acquittal and 7 of conviction, judgment was entered up in the Queen's Bench in 1862; and fines were recorded in the Crown office of 1s. each against three persons, of 6s. 8d. against the inhabitants of Gedney, and of 500l. against George Francis Train.

Fees in the Crown office.

The amount of fees received in the Crown office in 1862 was 616l. 2s. 8d., being less than in any of the three preceding years.

Business of the three courts.

The returns made by the Masters show the amount of the proceedings of each of the three courts on the Plea side.

The following is a summary of the chief matters shown in these returns for 1862, with the totals for 1861, and the average of the totals for 1861-60-59.

Bills of costs taxed.

The masters of the Courts of Queen's Bench and Exchequer have added statements of the number of bills of costs taxed in the year 1862, an important item in the business of the Masters' offices, which had not been included in former returns. The number of bills taxed in the Queen's Bench was, as between party and party, 6,218; as between attorney and client, about 824 (no accurate account of the latter having been hitherto kept). In the Court of Exchequer the number taxed, exclusive of bills taxed under the statute, was 8,324. The practice of the Court of Common Pleas, it is stated by the masters, differs in this respect from that of the Courts of Queen's Bench and Exchequer, and no return has been supplied.

Writs of summons issued.

The writs of summons issued, which represent the number of suits commenced, while exceeding in the number for 1862, the average for the three years to which the complete returns extend, in the proportion of 4·2 per cent., are less than the number for 1861, in the proportion of 10·3 per cent. The proportion which the number of appearances entered bears to the writs of summons issued varies in a slight degree, being 1·2 per cent. higher in 1862 than for 1861, and 0·3 per cent. than the average of the three years.

Appearances entered.

Causes for trial.

The next step in the proceedings appears on their entry for trial, as shown by the Associates' returns for the three courts, with respect to the business at Westminster, and by the clerks of Assize and clerks of the Crown, with respect to the business on Circuit. The following abstract shows the number of causes entered for trial, and the number of trials, the number withdrawn, struck out, &c., both at Westminster and on Circuit, with regard to each of the three Courts. In addition there were 45 causes entered for trial on Circuit, in the Common Pleas of Lancaster; four in the Common Pleas of Durham; and seven issues from the Court of Probate; of which 28 from the Common Pleas of Lancaster, one from Durham, and five from the Court of Probate, were tried. The total numbers from the three superior courts for 1861, and the average of the totals for the three years, are given for comparison. COMMON LAW COURTS.

County Palatine of Lancashire, 127; County Palatine of Durham, 20; making together 1,059. The total numbers in the preceding years were, in 1861, 1,024; in 1860, 965.

The judgments in the causes tried both at Westminster and on Circuit are shown without distinction in the Returns furnished by the Masters of the three Superior Courts. It depends upon the parties for whom verdicts are given at Nisi Prius to make application for the return of the issues into the Courts at Westminster, and in some cases a compromise is made after the verdict, and no further proceedings appear.

In 1862 the judgments were under the following terms in each of the three Courts; the total number in 1861, also, is given, with the average of the totals for 1861, 60, and 59. A considerable decrease appears in the numbers in each Court in 1862 as compared with 1861, the total decrease amounting to 14·2 per cent.

The returns made by the Associates further show the results of the causes tried or otherwise disposed of in each of the Courts at Westminster. In the returns made by the clerks of Assize and the clerks of the Crown, also the results of the causes tried or otherwise disposed of are given; and the whole of the causes entered for trial on Circuit are accounted for. The following is an abstract of these particulars as shown in the returns for 1862, with the totals as given in the abstract for 1861, and the average of the totals for 1861-60-59.

The executions which followed the foregoing judgments are classified under the various forms of writs as follows, as shown in the returns furnished by the Masters of the three Superior Courts. The total number of writs issued in 1861 is added, with the average of the totals for the years 1861–60–59, showing a decrease of 4,796, or 18·6 per cent. in the total number, in 1862 as compared with the number in 1861, and of 658, or 2·5 per cent., as compared with the average for the three years.

The judgments being subject to revision by the Courts sitting in Banco, on motions for new trials, or to enter or alter verdict, or for non suit, or arrest of judgment, or non obstante veredicto, it appears by the returns made by the Masters that, in 1862, 579 such motions were made; and consequently 36,166 judgments having been given, in one in every 64·2 of the cases a revision of the judgment was applied for. This proportion was, in 1861, one in 68·2; in 1860, one in 63·4. These 579 motions in 1862 were thus disposed of :—

COMMON LAW
COURTS.Issue of the proceedings.

On a review of the issue of the proceedings, it will be seen that while the number of writs of summons issued was 103,564, the number of appearances entered was only 27,643. Nearly three fourths (73·4 per cent.) of the suits commenced were therefore uncontested, the defendant at once settling the claim, except where judgment was obtained in default of the entry of an appearance. This proportion seems to vary very little from year to year.

Further, of the cases in which appearances were entered, 3,621 only were entered for trial, the suits being thus further reduced by 13·1 per cent. Again, of this number, 2,204 only, or 2·1 per cent. of the suits commenced were actually tried, and of these almost 9· per cent. were undefended.

The issue of the suits commenced is not, however, fully represented by the causes brought to trial, or by the appearances entered. Judgments, as has been already shown, were obtained under the different forms of procedure in 36,166 cases, leaving 67,398, or 65· per cent. as the number and proportion of the cases in which no proceedings were taken beyond the issue of the writ of summons. These cases may have been settled between the parties after the issue of the writ, or may not have been pursued further by the plaintiff, and in either case they are lost from the record, or they may have been left pending, the time which may elapse between the proceedings being uncertain.

For the enforcement of the judgments, writs were issued in 25,727, or 71·1 per cent. of the cases. Of these writs, 70·8 per cent. were to levy upon the goods; 24·6 per cent. against the person; 1·7 per cent. for recovery in ejectment, and the remaining one per cent. under the other forms above shown.

The return furnished by the Queen's Remembrancer of the sittings in Banco in the Court of Exchequer in the year 1862, relating to the revenue business of the court shows that there were 81 motions, of which 8 were motions in court, and 73 were motions for attachment (without argument). There were 6 causes in equity before the full Court on English informations: in 5 of the cases decree was given for the Crown; in one case judgment was adjourned. One special case was argued on a question of probate duty, in which judgment was in part for the Crown. The Queen's Remembrancer adds a statement to his return, that on the 9th November in each year the customary ceremony takes place of the presentation of the Lord Mayor of London to the Barons of the Court of Exchequer; and that on the morrow of St. Martin (12th November) in each year, on the assembling of the council in the Court of Exchequer, the nomination takes place of the Sheriffs for England and Wales.

The proceedings of the Court of Error, Exchequer Chamber, are shown in returns made by the Masters of the three superior courts of Common Law. The returns for 1862 are in a form somewhat different from the returns for preceding years, it not being thought desirable by the officers of the courts to continue to state the cause of action, inasmuch as forms of action being abolished by the Common Law Procedure Act there is difficulty in many cases in obtaining the information required. The proceedings from each Court are shown in the following simplified manner for 1862:—

COUNTY COURTS,

The ordinary proceedings of the County Courts are shown in the usual form, in the returns furnished by the treasurers for each of the 59 County Court Circuits.

The jurisdiction of the County Courts for the relief of insolvent debtors having ceased after the 11th October 1861, pursuant to the Bankruptcy Act of that year, the proceedings of these Courts, hitherto shown under the Protection Acts of 5 & 6 Vict. c. 116. and 7 & 8 Vict. c. 96., altogether disappear from the statistics of 1862. The proceedings under the new powers in Bankruptcy vested in the County Court Judges under the Bankruptcy Act of 1861 are required by that Act to be returned to the chief registrar of the Bankruptcy Court in London, as has been already stated; and it has to be regretted that it has not been found possible to obtain information in this respect in time for insertion in the Statistics of the present year. The proceedings with respect to the arrest of absconding debtors, the proceedings under the Charitable Trusts Acts, and the proceedings for the protection of the property of wives deserted by their husbands, are shown in the tables as usual. The proceedings under the jurisdiction of the County Courts in contentious cases relating to probates or administrations of wills will be found in the returns from the District Courts of Probate.

The total proceedings for the recovery of debts in the whole of the County Courts for 1862 are shown in the following table, in comparison with the totals for the preceding year and with the average of the totals for 1861-60-59.

The number of plaints entered shows a decrease of 56,669, or 6·6 per cent., as compared with the number for 1861, but exceeds the average of the three years in nearly the same proportion, viz. 5·8 per cent.

The number of causes determined in court was 55·1 per cent. of the number of plaints entered, 44·9 per cent. having consequently been settled after the issue of the summons without further proceedings.

Of the causes brought into court 99·8 per cent. were determined without a jury, being the same proportion as in the preceding year.

COUNTY COURTS.

In the returns for 1862, for the first time the number of judgments is made to correspond with the number of causes determined, the agreement of those numbers, for what cause is not apparent, not having been effected in the returns furnished by the treasurers in former years. In 95·9 per cent. of the causes, the issue was for the plaintiff; 2·2 per cent. were non-suits; in 1·9 per cent. judgment was for the defendant.

The proportion of debtors imprisoned was higher than in either of the preceding years, as was also the number of executions against goods issued.

In the total amount sought to be recovered, there is a decrease of 161,657*l.*, or 8 per cent., as compared with 1861, although the amount is higher than the amount for either of the two preceding years, or than the average of the three years. This amount gives an average of 2*l.* 7*s.* 4*d.* for each case in 1862. The judgments obtained for 40*s.* and under, however, it will be seen, were upwards of 70 per cent. of the whole number obtained. For rather less than half this amount (47·8 per cent.) judgments were obtained by plaintiffs on original hearings, the suits for the remainder having been settled out of Court, or decided for the defendant. In the amounts both of costs and of fees, it will be seen there was a decrease as compared with 1861, although they were higher than in either of the preceding years, or than the average of the three years.

The classified amounts are shown with regard to the whole of the cases in which judgments were obtained, including the non-suits and the cases given for the defendant.

Absconding
debtors.

Fifty-four warrants were issued for the arrest of absconding debtors; in one case bail was given; in 10 cases the debts and costs were paid; in 1861 the number of warrants issued was 129.

Charitable Trusts
Act.

Under the Charitable Trust Act one matter only was heard, and one order made; in 1861, 16 matters were heard; in 1860, 137; and 140 in 1859.

Protection orders.

In 532 cases, protection orders to wives deserted by their husbands were registered; in 2 cases the orders were discharged on hearing; in 1861, 631 orders were registered; in 1860, 611; in 1859, 719.

Borough, Hundred, and Manorial Courts, (Table,
p. 138.)

The remaining Courts for the recovery of debts, whether of ancient jurisdiction or constituted under Local Acts, are given in the table. Thirty-three of these courts are named, inclusive of the Sheriffs Court of London. The Knightlow Hundred Court, which has hitherto appeared in the list, has been reported as abandoned, and is consequently omitted. In five of those named no proceedings took place in 1862. In the Bowland Wapentake Court two plaints only were entered for the recovery of one guinea each, and no proceedings followed beyond the summons. In the Clitheroe Borough Court of Pleas there was one plaint only, for the recovery of 70*l.*, in which judgment was allowed to go by default for the Plaintiff, the amount of costs exclusive of fees having been 3*l.*, and the fees 1*l.* In the Ipswich Guildhall Court two plaints only were entered, one for the recovery of upwards of 200*l.*, the other for less than 50*l.* On the other hand, in the Sheriffs Court of London 11,410 plaints were entered for an aggregate amount of 38,451*l.* In the Manchester Court of Record 4,690 writs were issued for 63,422*l.* In the Salford Hundred Court 3,446 writs were issued for 33,745*l.* In the Liverpool Court of Passage 3,468 plaints were entered, and judgment was obtained for 56,022*l.*, no record being kept in this Court of the amount for which plaints are entered. In some others of these Courts the amount of business was considerable. The total number of proceedings commenced in all the Courts was 30,787, being an increase of 290 as compared with the number in 1861. The total amount sought to be recovered was 188,823*l.*, exclusive of the amount in the Liverpool Court of Passage, being an increase of 1,770*l.*, as compared with the amount in 1861. The amount of debt, exclusive of costs, for which judgment was obtained in all the Courts, was 125,180*l.* The total amount of costs was 18,782*l.* The total amount of fees on all proceedings was 11,898*l*. The amount of costs and fees together was 25 per cent. of the amount of debt recovered. LORD MAYOR'S COURT.

Returns of the proceedings in the Lord Mayor's Court, London, for the year 1862, (Table, p. 140.) have been furnished by the Registrar of the Court in the usual form. These Returns show the proceedings of the Court in actions and in foreign attachments. The number of actions entered, was 4,109, being an increase 179, or 4·5 per cent., upon the number for the preceding year; The number of ejectments was 7; The number of apprentice petitions, 9.

The amount for which actions were entered was 90,519*l*., being an increase of 10,435*l*., or 13 per cent., on the amount in 1861.

The proceedings are given in detail in the table.

The number of foreign attachments issued was 619, for a total amount of 585,533*l*. Of these 224, for a total amount of 107,465*l*., were withdrawn and settled by the parties. A note by the Registrar explains that "the amount for which judgment is signed forms no criterion of the sums recovered in attachments, as the majority of the cases is settled by parties themselves out of court, and thereupon the proceedings are withdrawn. The amount in cases so settled appears under this head."

The number of attachments issued in 1862 was less by 103 than the number in 1861, while the total amount for which they were issued exceeds the total amount in 1861 by 269,129*l*., or 85 per cent. The amount of fees on all proceedings, exclusive of costs, was 2,369*l*. against 2,339*l*. in the preceding year.

The Return furnished by the Registrar of the Court of the Vice Warden of the Stannaries shows the proceedings of the Court in Equity and in Common Law, and for the winding-up of Joint Stock Companies, and proceedings not in any cause, during the year 1862. Stannaries Courts, (Table, pp. 139-140.)

The proceedings extend, under the Equity jurisdiction, to both the counties of Cornwall and Devon, under the Common Law jurisdiction to Cornwall only, no causes having been tried in 1862 under this jurisdiction in respect of the Stannaries in Devon.

The proceedings under these jurisdictions appear to vary in no material degree from year to year.

The proceedings of the Court on petitions for winding up take place under the Joint Stock Company's Acts 1856-7-8, and under the Companies, Act 1862, and apply to both counties. In 1861 no proceedings for winding-up had taken place for the county of Devon. The return for 1862 shows proceedings for both counties. The details as given by the Registrar will be found in the table.

The necessary Returns not having been obtained, of the business in the Courts of Bankruptcy since the 11th October 1861, up to which date the Returns given last year were made, no information of the proceedings in Bankruptcy from the commencement of the operation of the new Act can be included in the Statistics of the present year. This deficiency, which under the circumstances, appears to have been unavoidable, will, it may be hoped, be supplied by two years' Returns in next year's publication. Courts of Bankruptcy.

For the High Court of Chancery returns have been furnished for 1862, in the same form as for the preceding years, by the chief officers of the different branches of the Court, showing the separate proceedings and duties in each branch, the fees levied on the suitors, and the large amounts paid into Court by the suitors, during the year, and the amounts paid out to them under the decisions of the Court. These returns have shown the amount of business in progress through the Court in each year, and now afford the means of comparison between four years, to which they COURT OF CHANCERY, (pp. 142-146.)

The Court of Probate, which now exercises exclusive jurisdiction in matters relating to the grant or revocation of probate of wills and letters of administration, dates from the same year as the Divorce and Matrimonial Causes Court. Returns have been furnished for 1862 in the usual form by the senior registrar for the Principal Registry, and by each of the forty district registrars for their respective Registries.

District Registries. The power of the district registrars extends to the grant of probates and letters of administration in common form, that is, where there is no contention to the grant; in disputed cases the grant can be made only on the decision of the County Court. The total of the proceedings in the whole of the registries, and the amount of fees and stamps, was as follows for each of the years 1862 and 1861. The average of the three preceding years is added:—

	1862.	1861.	Average, 1860-59-58.
Number granted in common form:

By the establishment of the Divorce and Matrimonial Causes Court, and the Court of Probate, under the Acts of the 20th & 21st Vict., and the transfer to those Courts of the jurisdiction in matrimonial matters, and matters relating to the grant or revocation of probate of wills and letters of administration, the judicial business of the Ecclesiastical Courts has been reduced to an inconsiderable amount. These latter Courts comprise the Arches Courts of the two provinces of Canterbury and York, and 28 Diocesan Consistory Courts. In 12 of these, during the past year, no proceedings took place. In the remaining 18 Courts the total number of suits was 31, an average of one suit only for each Court. This number, however, differs in no great degree from the numbers in each of the three preceding years, the totals for which were, respectively 36 for 1861, 35 for 1860, and 28 for 1859. The names of the Courts in which proceedings took place in 1862 are distinguished in the table, and the nature and results of the proceedings are shown.

Besides the foregoing, there were proceedings in 79 cases on suits for faculties, in 77 of which faculties were decreed. In one case the faculty was refused; in one it was in progress. The total numbers of similar proceedings in the previous years were, in 1861, 95; in 1860, 81; in 1859, 87.

The total amount of the court fees on all the suits in 1862 was 300*l.* In 1861, the amount was 294*l.*; in 1860, 288*l.*; in 1859, 281*l.*

The return furnished by the registrar of the Privy Council shows the proceedings of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in the year 1862, under the heads of Admiralty Cases, Ecclesiastical Cases, Channel Islands, and Isle of Man, Colonies, and India. The largest amount of business comes from the Colonies and India.

The total numbers as shown in the return for 1862 are as follows, in comparison with the totals for each of the three preceding years:—

	1862.	1861.	1860.	1859.
Number of appeals entered - - - - -	51	78	67	59
Dismissed for non-prosecution - - - - -	14	16	6	7
Heard and determined - - - - -	48	45	42	32
Judgments affirmed - - - - -	23	24	25	16
„ varied - - - - -	4	6	2	—
„ reversed - - - - -	21	15	15	16
Appeals (lodged since Order of 13th June 1853) which remained for hearing - - - - -	94	99	81	66

In 10 of the appeals heard and determined in 1862 no costs were given; in 38 costs were given.

The amount of costs taxed (in 34 appeals in which the costs on one side only were taxed by the registrar) was 9,082*l.* 7*s.* 0*d.*, which gives an average of 267*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.* for each case.

The amount of Council Office fees on appeals in 1862 was 1,381*l.* 11*s.* 0*d.*; in 1861 the amount was 788*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.*; in 1860 it was 803*l.* 2*s.* 0*d.*; in 1859, 626*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.*

Further, in 1862, 11 applications were lodged for extension or confirmation of letters patent: one was withdrawn, three were dismissed, one was granted. The amount of Council Office fees on Patent Cases in 1862 was 166*l.* 10*s.* 0*d.*; in 1861 it was 101*l.* 3*s.* 0*d.*; in 1860 it was 39*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.*

In addition to the foregoing business, the Lords of the Judicial Committee of Privy Council likewise heard 25 petitions in appeals (interlocutory) argued by counsel.

The return furnished by the clerk of the Parliaments shows the judicial proceedings of the House of Lords in the Session of 1862. The number of appeals and causes in error are distinguished as presented from each of the following Courts. The numbers for each of the four preceding years are added for comparison.

Of the foregoing in 1862, 14 were in matters of real property, 28 in matters of personal property, 1 of real and personal property, and 6 miscellaneous. 5 causes were withdrawn; 14 were dismissed for want of prosecution. The results of hearing were, 8 cases simply affirmed, 1 case simply reversed, 12 reversed with declarations, and 2 dismissed. The total number of causes heard (including heard and standing over for judgment or heard in part) was 30. 35 causes remained for hearing. In 1861, 26 causes, in 1860, 27, in 1859 and in 1858, each, 49 causes remained for hearing at the end of the session.

The total amount of fees was 1,737*l.* 6*s.* 0*d.*; in 1861 it was 2,528*l.* 15*s.* 0*d.*; in 1860 it was 2,493*l.* 5*s.* 6*d.*; in 1859, 2,023*l.*; in 1858, 1,791*l.* 2*s.* 0*d.*

Comparing the years 1861 and 1862, the Returns, throughout the second part of the Statistics, appear to show, generally, although not in every instance, a less amount of business in the latter year.
